XV. And whereas it frequently happens that the principal in a felony is not in custody or amenable to justice, although several accessories to such felony or receivers at different times of stolen property the subject of such felony may be in custody or amenable to justice: for the prevention of several trials, it is enacted that any number of such accessories or receivers may be charged with substantive felonies in the same indictment, notwithstanding the principal felon shall not be included in the same indictment, or shall not be in custody or amenable to justice.

XVI. It shall be lawful to insert several counts in the same indictment against the same person for any number of distinct acts of stealing, not exceeding three, which may have been committed by him against the same person within the space of six calendar months from the first to the last of such acts, and to proceed thereon for all or any of them.

XVII. If upon the trial of any indictment for larceny, it shall appear that the property alleged in such indictment to have been stolen at one time was taken at different times, the prosecutor shall not by reason thereof be required to elect upon which taking he will proceed, unless it shall appear that there were more than three takings, or that more than the space of six calendar months elapsed between the first and the last of such takings; and in either of such last-mentioned cases the prosecutor shall be required to elect to proceed for such number of takings, not exceeding three, as appear to have taken place within the period of six calendar months from the first to the last of such takings.

XVIII. In every indictment in which it shall be necessary to make any averment as to any money or any note of any bank, it shall be sufficient to describe such money or bank-note simply as money, without specifying any particular coin or bank-note; and such allegation, so far as regards the description of the property, shall be sustained by proof of any amount of coin or of any bank-note, although the particular species of coin of which such amount was composed, or the particular nature of the bank-note, shall not be proved, and in cases of embezzlement and obtaining money or bank-notes by false pretences, by proof that the offender embezzled or obtained any piece of coin or any bank-note, or any portion of the value thereof, although such piece of coin or bank-note may have been delivered to him in order that some part of the value thereof should be returned to the party delivering the same, or to any other person, and such part shall have been returned accordingly.

davit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged upon the defendant, and by what Court or before whom the oath, affirmation, declaration, affidavit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing was taken, made, signed, or subscribed, without setting forth the bill, answer, information, indictment, declaration, or any part of any proceeding either in law or in equity, and without setting forth the commission or authority of the Court or person before whom such offence was committed.

XX. In every indictment for subornation of perjury, or for corrupt bargaining or contracting with any person to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, or for inciting, causing, or procuring any person unlawfully, wilfully, falsely, fraudulently, deceitfully, maliciously or corruptly to take, make, sign or subscribe any oath, affirmation, declaration, affidavit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing, it shall be sufficient, wherever such perjury or other offence aforesaid shall have been actually committed, to allege the offence of the person who actually committed such perjury or other offence in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, and then to allege that the defendants unlawfully, wilfully, and corruptly did cause and procure the said person the said offence, in manner and form aforesaid, to do and commit; and wherever such perjury or other offence aforesaid shall not have been actually committed, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged upon the defendant, without setting forth or averring any of the matters or things hereinbefore rendered unnecessary to be set forth or averred in the case of wilful and corrupt perjury.

XXI. No indictment for any offence shall be held insufficient for want of the averment of any matter unnecessary to be proved, nor for the omission of the words "as appears by the record," or of the words "with force and arms," or of the words "against the peace," nor for the insertion of the words "against the form of the statute," instead of "against the form of the statutes," or vice versa, nor for that any person mentioned in the indictment is designated by a name of office, or other descriptive appellation, instead of his proper name, nor for omitting to state the time at which the offence was committed in any case where time is not of the essence of the offence, nor for stating the time imperfectly, nor for stating the offence to have been committed on a day subsequent to the finding of the indictment, or on an impossible day, or on a day that never happened, nor for want of a proper or perfect venue, nor for want of a proper or formal conclusion, nor for want of or imperfection in the addition of any defendant, nor for want of the statement of the value or price of any matter or thing, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, in any case where the value or price, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, is not of the essence of the offence.

XXII. Every objection to any indictment for any formal defect apparent on the face thereof shall be taken, by demurrer or motion to quash such indictment, before the jury shall be sworn, and not afterwards; and every Court before which any such objection shall be taken for any formal defect may, if it be thought necessary, cause the indictment to be forthwith amended in such particular by some officer of

II. I. The following Regulations and parts of Regulations of the Bombay Code, and the following Acts and parts of Acts of the Government of India, are repealed, that is to say, Sections I. the Bombay Code, so far as such Acts or Regulations prescribe the levy within the Bombay Presidency of any customs duties, as well on transit by land as on import and export by sea, or which relate in any way to such duties, or which require the payment of any fee leviable by Customs Authorities on account of any vessel which may enter any port in the territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay.

II. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to prevent the levy of any anchorage or harbour dues now leviable at the port of Bombay, or the levy of any special duties on opium, tobacco, gunja, spirits or salt which are, or may be, established by any Law, or the levy of any town duty, or of any Municipal Tax, or of any toll on any bridge, road, canal or causeway, or for repair and maintenance of light-houses, or the levy of any rent or fee leviable under Act XXV. of 1836, on the warehousing of goods.

III. Whoever, being an officer appointed under the authority of this Act, practises or attempts to practise any fraud for the purpose of injuring the customs revenue, or abets or connives at any such fraud, or at any attempt to practise any such fraud, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, or to fine or both.

XII. In all cases in which under this Act, goods are liable to confiscation, and in all cases in which under this Act, any person in charge of, or owning a vessel, or landing or shipping goods, or passing them through the custom house, is liable to a penalty, a commissioner or collector of customs may adjudicate such confiscation or such penalty; or the same may be adjudged by a deputy or by an assistant collector of customs being a Justice of the Peace: provided, that the power to adjudicate confiscation shall not extend as regards a deputy collector to goods beyond the value of rupees one thousand, nor as regards an assistant collector to goods beyond the value of rupees one hundred, nor shall any deputy collector impose any fine beyond the amount of rupees fifty, nor any assistant collector beyond the amount of rupees ten; and all cases adjudicated by a deputy or assistant collector shall be liable to revision by a collector of customs on appeal.

XIII. In case any goods, ship, vessel, boat, cart, vehicle, or other article shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as under-valued under this Act, the adjudicating officer may order the same to be restored in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit to direct; and if the proprietor of the same accepts such terms and conditions, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention, and the adjudicating officer shall not proceed to condemnation.

XIV. Any collector of customs or other officer, who is authorized to adjudicate customs cases, if he shall decide that a seizure of goods made under the authority of this Act was vexatious and unnecessary, may adjudge damages to be paid to the proprietor by the customs officer who made such a vexatious seizure, beside ordering the immediate release of the goods; and if the proprietor accepts such damages no action shall thereafter lie against the officer of customs, in any court of justice, on account of such seizure; and if such adjudicating officer shall decide that the seizure was warranted, but shall deem that the penalty of confiscation is unduly severe, he may mitigate the same by levying on the goods so seized as aforesaid, any portion of the market value of such goods not less than one-tenth of such value; and if the said officer adjudges confiscation, or any penalty in mitigation of confiscation, he may order that from the sale of the goods, or from the proceeds of any penalty inflicted in mitigation of confiscation, a proportion not exceeding, in all cases of seizure except seizures of salt or tobacco, one-half of the sum remaining after payment of all Government demands shall be distributed in rewards amongst such officers as he deems entitled thereto, and in such proportion as he directs to each respectively: but in awarding rewards for the seizure of confiscated salt or tobacco, he may award one-half of the proceeds of sale, without making any deduction on account of Government demands.

XV. All penalties under this Act, except those specified in any judicial award of the collector or other adjudicating officer, as provided for in Section XIII. of this Act, shall be adjudged and determined by the officiating magistrate of the place where the offence shall have been committed; and any collector being a justice of the peace, or deputy or assistant collector authorized in such behalf by his superior and being a justice of peace, may take informations and depositions on oath or solemn affirmation or declaration touching any matters involving a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, and if taken in the presence of the party or parties charged with such breach, the same shall be received in evidence by such magistrate in the like manner and to the same extent as if taken before him, and shall be deemed sufficient for him to adjudicate thereon: but nothing herein contained shall prevent such magistrate from taking any information or deposition afresh, or from taking other and further depositions in the matter, if he think fit.

XVI. If any person in charge of, or owning a vessel shall have become liable to any fine on account of any act or omission relating to the customs, the collector of customs, subject to the orders of the Governor of Bombay in Council, may refuse port clearance to such vessel until the fine is discharged; and in like manner if any person passing goods through the custom house, shall have become liable to any fine, the collector of customs may detain such goods until the fine is discharged.

XVII. No person shall act as an agent for transacting business in the custom house in the port of Bombay which shall relate to the entrance or clearance of any ship, goods, or baggage, unless authorized so to do by licence of the collector of customs, who may require a bond to be given by every person to whom such licence shall be granted, with sufficient securities, in any sum not exceeding five thousand rupees for the faithful and incorrupt behaviour of such person as regards the custom house regulations and its officers; and every person who shall act as such agent not being so licensed shall, for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding the sum of five hundred rupees. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to forbid the clerk or servant, or known accredited agent of any person, or of any mercantile firm, from transacting business at the custom house on account of such person or firm without licence.

XVIII. Duties of customs shall be levied on goods imported by sea from any port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or from Aden, or any port in the Straits of Malacca, the Tenasserim Provinces, or the Province of Arracan, into any place in the territories subordinate to the Government of the Presidency of Bombay according to the rates specified in Schedule A. annexed to this Act, and with the exceptions specified therein; and the said Schedule shall be taken to be a part of this Act.

XIX. XX. Spirits exported from any port subject to the Government of the East India Company, and imported at any other port subordinate to the Government of Bombay shall be liable on importation to the same rate of duty as may be fixed on spirit of country manufacture by Schedule A. annexed to this Act, or by any future enactment. Provided always that if the said spirit be accompanied by a document signed by competent authority, certifying that a duty, whether of customs or otherwise, has been paid on the said spirit to the East India Company, credit shall be allowed for the sum so paid in settling the customs at the port of import; and if such sum equal or exceed the full amount of customs leviable on spirits of country manufacture under Schedule A. aforesaid, or any future enactment, then the spirit on which such duty has been paid shall be admitted to free entry.

XXI. The Governor in Council may direct that an anchorage toll shall be levied at any port or ports within the Bombay Presidency on all vessels arriving from any other port or ports which may be specified by the said Governor in Council, and such anchorage toll shall be levied at such port or ports on every such vessel on each arrival of such vessel at the rates specified in Schedule C, annexed to this Act: and the said Schedule shall be taken to be part of this Act.

XXII. No goods entered in either of the Schedules of this Act, as liable to duty, shall be exempted from the payment of such duty or of any part thereof, except under special order from the Governor of Bombay in Council, and the collector of customs shall detain all goods subject to duty under this Act until such duty shall have been duly paid according to the rules herein provided: Provided always, that the collector of customs, or other officer in charge of a custom house, may at his discretion pass free of duty any passenger's personal baggage in actual use, and if any person shall apply to have goods passed as such baggage, the collector, acting under the orders of Government, shall determine whether they be passenger's personal baggage in actual use, or goods subject to duty under the provisions of this Act.

XXIII. On application by the exporter of any salt that has paid the excise duty, as established by law, a certificate shall be granted by the collector of customs at the place of export, under authority of which certificate the quantity of salt specified therein may be landed at any other port of the said Presidency of Bombay, and passed from such port into the interior of the country without the levy of any further duty either of excise or of customs.

XXIV. The Governor of Bombay in Council, from time to time by notice in the official Gazette of that Presidency, may fix a value for any article, or number of articles, liable to duty upon their value, and the value so fixed for such articles shall, till altered by a similar notice, be taken to be the value of such articles for the purpose of levying duty on the same.

XXV. When goods liable to duty for which a value has been fixed by such notice or for which a fixed duty has been declared by the Schedules annexed to this Act, are brought to any custom house in the Bombay Presidency in a damaged state, and such damage is declared previous to the assessment of customs on such goods, the collector of customs may make an abatement of customs in proportion to the damage received; and, in estimating such damage, he shall be guided by such rules as the Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time determine and notify; but if the value of the goods be not deteriorated more than one-fifth part thereof no abatement of customs shall be allowed.

XXVI. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has not been fixed by such a notice as is above directed, or for which a fixed duty has not been declared by the Schedules annexed to this Act, are brought to any custom house in the Presidency of Bombay for the purpose of being passed for importation or exportation, the duty leviable on such goods shall be levied according to the market value of such goods at the place and time of importation or exportation as the case may be.

XXVII. No goods shall be allowed to be passed through the custom house until a written application, according to a form to be prescribed by the collector of customs, shall have been made by the owner, consignee, exporter, importer, or the agent for any of such persons respectively, for permission to pass such goods through the custom house; and such application shall contain a true description of such goods, with the marks, numbers and description of the packages containing the same, and a declaration of their value, and shall set forth the name of the ship in which the goods have been imported, or are to be exported, the name of the master of the said ship, the colors under which the said ship sails, and the country in which the goods were produced. If any goods shall be passed through the custom house, or attempted to be removed therefrom without such an application in writing as is above described, they shall be liable to be seized and confiscated.

XXVIII. The market value for assessment of duties on the goods indicated in Section XXVI. shall be that declared in the application to be made, as aforesaid. Provided always, that the value so declared be admitted by the collector or by the officer appointed to appraise goods at the custom house; but if the value of the whole or any part of the goods entered in the declaration aforesaid shall seem to the collector to be understated in such declaration, he shall have power to take the goods, or any part thereof as purchased for the Government at the price so declared; and whenever the collector of customs shall so take goods for the Government, payment thereof shall be made to the consignee, importer or exporter within one month from the date of the declaration; if the goods be imported goods, the amount of import duty leviable thereon shall be first deducted, and if the goods be intended for exportation, the entire value as declared, shall be paid without deduction on account of customs duty: and the collector shall sell the goods so taken on account of Government; and, if they shall realize on sale a sum exceeding all charges incurred on them by Government, a proportion not more than one-half of the excess shall, at the discretion of the collector, be payable to the officer who reported the undervaluation of the goods, who shall in like manner be liable to pay one-half of the net loss that may accrue on the sale of the said goods.

XXIX. And whereas under Section XXV. of this Act, it may be found expedient to fix the dutiable value of certain goods at the rates shewn by their invoice, when it shall appear to the officer of customs appointed to appraise goods at the custom house that any goods are undervalued in an invoice presented for the purpose of assessing customs, he shall report the same to the collector of customs, who shall call upon the Importer or Exporter to declare the market value of the goods in question, and if the value so declared shall appear to the Collector insufficient, he may take such goods for Government at the value so declared, and dispose of them as empowered by Section XXVIII. of this Act.

XXX. Upon any goods liable to duty that may be passed through the custom house for shipment, the application for which shall be presented after port clearance shall have been taken out, double of the prescribed duty shall, in all cases, be levied, and if the goods (always excepting treasure and opium) be free, or have already paid import duty, or have been imported free under certificate, five per cent. upon the market value shall be levied thereon, or if the same be imported goods entitled to drawback, the drawback shall be forfeited, but no separate duty shall be levied on drawback goods.

XXXI. When a vessel having cleared out for any port, shall put back from stress of weather, or it shall from any damage, or from other cause be necessary that the cargo of a vessel that has cleared out shall be unshipped or reloaded, a customs officer shall be sent to watch the vessel, and take charge of the cargo during such reloading or removal from on board; and the goods on board such vessel shall not be allowed to be transhipped or re-exported free of duty by reason of the previous settlement of duty, at the time of first export unless the goods shall be lodged in such place as shall be allowed by the collector of customs, and shall remain while on land or while on board of any other vessel under special charge of the officers of customs until the time of re-export, and all charges attending such custody shall be borne by the exporter. Provided however, that in all cases of return to port after port clearance on account of damage or for stress of weather, the owner or master may enter the vessel and land the cargo under the rules for the importation of goods, and the export duty shall in that case be refunded, and the amount paid in drawback be reclaimed; and if goods on account of which drawback has been paid, be not found on board the vessel, the Master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding the entire value thereof, unless he accounts for them to the satisfaction of the collector of customs.

XXXII. When goods shall be reloaded before the lading of any vessel is complete, and before port clearance has been granted, the duty levied upon such goods shall be returned to the exporter, but no refund shall be made of duty paid on the export of any goods after port clearance shall have been granted for the vessel on which the goods are exported, unless the vessel shall have put back for stress of weather or for damage, and the goods shall have been reloaded under the rule contained in Section XXXI.

XXXIII. Goods exported in the same vessel on which they were imported, if manifested for re-export, shall not be subject to import or export duty; and, if any goods brought to any port in any vessel be transhipped in such port, they shall in all cases be subject to the same duty as if they had been landed and passed through the custom house for re-exportation in the vessel into which they may be transhipped.

XXXIV. No duty of customs which shall have been charged and paid, and of which repayment is claimed in consequence of the same having been charged or paid under an erroneous construction of law or from other error, shall be returned unless such claim is made within two years from the date of such payment.

XXXV. With the sanction of the Governor of Bombay in Council, seven-eighths of the customs levied on imports may be repaid as drawback upon the re-export by sea of goods which can be identified to the satisfaction of the collector of customs as having previously paid customs duties on import at the same port; provided that such re-export be made within two years of the date of import by the custom house register, and the drawback be claimed at the time of re-export; but no drawback shall be claimable under this Act on any re-export of opium or salt, or of goods destined for any port in the territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, except Aden, and ports in the Straits of Malacca, the Tenasserim Provinces, and the Province of Arracan.

XXXVI. Every person who shall counterfeit or falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any invoice, entry, cockpit, or other document for the purpose of clearing, or having customs duties assessed on, any goods, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

XXXVII. If any certificate, manifest, bill, or other custom house documents be lost by any person to whom they may have been issued by the custom house authorities, the collector of customs, on being satisfied that no fraud has been committed, or was intended, may grant a duplicate of such lost document upon payment of a fee of not less than one rupee, nor exceeding ten rupees; and further the collector may authorize any amendment to be made in any import or export application; but, if such amendment be required after such application is entered and recorded in the custom house books, then upon payment of a like fee for any document so entered.

XXXVIII. The master of every vessel on arrival at the port of Bombay shall, on being required by any customs officer who may proceed on board, enter in a printed form with which such officer will be furnished, the information therein required, which shall include the vessel's name and the country to which she belongs, the name of the captain or sailing master, the port from whence she began her voyage, and the date of departure therefrom, also the names of any ports at which she touched during her voyage, and of any vessels she may have spoken, and a list of her passengers; and any master of any vessel who shall refuse to enter such information, or delay to do so for more than two hours after delivery to him of the printed form aforesaid, or wilfully make any false statement in filling up the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XXXIX. On the arrival of any ship, bont, or other vessel at the port of Bombay, the master or commander thereof shall, within twelve hours after he shall have anchored, report to the collector of customs the quantity of gunpowder which he has on board, and all such gunpowder in excess of five seers, unless a greater quantity shall be authorized by Government to be retained on board any vessel, shall be delivered by him in charge of such person as shall be named in an order to be furnished to him for such purpose by a proper officer of Government, and on his failure to make such report, or deliver such excess, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XL. When any vessel shall arrive in any port of the Presidency of Bombay, the master shall deliver a certificate of registry of such vessel if registered as a British vessel under Act of Parliament, or if registered under Acts of the Government of India No. X. of 1841, or No. XI. of 1850 a certificate of registry as required by such Acts, or if not registered under either of the said Acts then the pass or sea letter under which the vessel may have sailed, to the first person duly empowered to receive such certificate of registry or pass, who comes on board; and if no such person comes on board before the anchor is dropped, then such certificate or pass shall be forwarded to the collector of customs or other principal officer of customs on the spot by the first boat that leaves the vessel after dropping anchor; and, if the port be up a river, or at a distance from the land first made, no inward bound vessel, except such country craft as are described in Section LIX. of this Act, shall pass beyond such place in such river or adjoining such port as shall be from time to time appointed by the Governor of Bombay in Council, by an order published in the Government Gazette of the Presidency, until the master shall have forwarded in such manner as may be so ordered by the said Governor, a certificate of registry or pass, and the master of such vessel arriving as aforesaid, shall deliver in duplicate, at the same time and in like manner as he is hereinbefore directed to deliver a certificate of the registry of the vessel, a true manifest of the cargo on board; and if there be no cargo, then a blank manifest made out according to such form as may be prescribed by the collector of customs; and the wilful breach or neglect of any of the provisions of this Section shall subject the master to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

XLII. If the manifest so delivered by the master shall not contain a full and true specification of all the goods imported in the vessel, the said master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding rupees one thousand, and any goods or packages in excess of the manifest so delivered, or differing in quality or kind, or in marks and numbers, from the specification contained therein, that are found on board, or are found after being fraudulently removed from the vessel, shall be liable to be seized by any officer of customs and confiscated, or to be charged with such increased duties not exceeding the value of such goods or packages as may be determined by the collector of customs.

XLIII. If any inward bound vessel shall remain outside or below the place that may be fixed by the Governor in Council for the first delivery of manifests, the master shall deliver a manifest as hereinbefore prescribed, to the first person duly empowered to receive such manifest who comes on board, and the master of any vessel entering a port for which there is a custom house established, and being at anchor therein for twenty-four hours, who shall refuse or neglect to deliver the said manifest within that time in the manner above prescribed, shall, for such refusal or neglect, be liable to a fine not exceeding rupees one thousand; and no entry or port clearance shall be given for such vessel until the fine is paid.

XLIV. No vessel shall be entitled to inward entry, or be allowed to break bulk, until a manifest in duplicate, as required by this Act, shall have been received by the collector of customs, nor until orders have been given by the said collector for the discharge of the cargo; and the said collector may further refuse to give such order, if he shall see fit, until any port clearance, cocket or other papers known to be granted at the places from which the vessel is stated to have come, shall likewise be delivered to him.

XLV. No vessel shall be entitled to entry outwards, or to take on board any part of her export cargo, until a written application for such purpose shall have been made by the master of such vessel to the collector of customs, nor until an order shall have been given by the said collector for shipping export cargo, and in the written application to be made as aforesaid, the name, tonnage, and nation of the vessel shall be described, as also the name of the master, and the name or names of the place or places for which she is bound.

XLVI. If in the application prescribed by the preceding Section of this Act, a vessel be described to be bound to any port or ports within the territories of the East India Company, then the collector of customs, or, in his absence, his deputy or assistant, may refuse a port clearance to such vessel until the master or commander thereof shall have given a joint bond together with the owner or the consignee of the said vessel, or some other party approved by the collector of customs, or in his absence by his deputy or assistant, by which such parties or one of them shall be bound to produce to the collector of customs a certificate from the officer in charge of the port to which such vessel is said to be bound, of her arrival at such port within a fair and reasonable time to be prescribed by the collector in each case, and in failure of producing such certificate, or showing sufficient reason for its non-production, the parties to the bond aforesaid shall be jointly and severally bound to pay a penal sum equal to double the amount of customs which would have been chargeable on the export cargo of the said vessel had she been declared bound to a port beyond the territories of the East India Company.

XLVII. No goods shall be allowed to leave any vessel or to be put on board thereof, until entry of the vessel shall have been duly made in the custom house of the port, and until order shall have been given for discharge or shipment of the cargo thereof as above provided, and it shall be the duty of every customs officer to seize as contraband any goods which have been removed from or put on board of any vessel in contravention of the above provision; and the master of any vessel who shall permit or neglect to take measures for preventing the landing or shipping of any goods in contravention of the above provisions, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XLVIII. After entry of the vessel at the custom house in due form as above prescribed, such part of the cargo as may not be declared for re-exportation in the same vessel, shall be landed and export cargo shall be laden on board according to the forms and rules that may be prescribed for the port by this Act, or by order of the Governor of Bombay in Council; and if an attempt be made to land or put on board goods or merchandise in contravention of the forms and rules so prescribed, the goods shall be liable to seizure and confiscation.

XLIX. If goods entered in the manifest of a vessel shall not be found on board that vessel, or if the quantity found be short, and the deficiency be not duly accounted for, or if goods sent out of the vessel be not landed at the custom house, or at such other place as the collector of customs shall have prescribed, the master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees for every missing or deficient package of unknown value, and to a penalty equal to twice the amount of duty chargeable on the goods deficient and unaccounted for, if the duty can be ascertained, and if they be not subject to duty, then to a penalty equal to five per cent. on the value of such deficient goods. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the collector of customs from permitting, at his discretion, the master of any vessel to amend obvious and unintentional errors, or to supply omissions from accident or inadvertence, by furnishing an amended or supplemental manifest.

XLIX. Every master of a vessel who shall remove from such vessel or put on board thereof any goods, or cause or suffer any goods to be removed from thence, or put on board thereof between sunset and sunrise, or on any day when the custom house is closed for business, without leave in writing obtained from the collector of customs, shall be both to a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

L. When goods shall be sent from on board of any vessel for the purpose of being landed and passed for importation, there shall be sent with each boat load, or other separate despatch, a boat note specifying the number of packages and the marks and numbers, or other description thereof, and such boat note shall be signed by an officer of the vessel; and if the vessel have a customs officer on board, the boat note must be signed by such officer as well as by an officer of the vessel; and, if any imported goods be found in a boat proceeding to land from such a vessel without a boat note as above provided, or if being accompanied by such boat note they be found out of the proper track between the ship and the proper place of landing, the boat containing such goods may be detained by any officer of customs duly authorized by the collector; and, unless the cause of deviation be explained to the satisfaction of the collector of customs, the goods shall be liable to seizure and confiscation.

LI. Except in special cases sanctioned by the collector of customs, twenty days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed for the discharge of the import cargo of vessels not exceeding six hundred tons' burthen, and thirty days for vessels exceeding that burthen; and the said periods shall be calculated from the date on which the vessel was admitted to entry inward; and if any goods remain on board after the periods above fixed, the collector may order the same to be landed and warehoused, for the security of the duties chargeable thereon, and of any freight and primage and other demands that may be due thereon, giving his receipt to the master for the goods so warehoused; but the collector or other officer in charge of the custom house, with the consent of the master of the vessel, may cause any packages to be brought on shore and to be deposited in the Government warehouses, although the periods above fixed have not expired.

LII. No vessel shall depart from any port of the Presidency of Bombay without a port clearance being granted by the collector of customs or other proper officer duly authorized by the Governor of Bombay in Council to grant the same, and application shall be made for such port clearance at least twenty-four hours before the intended departure of the vessel; and no such port clearance shall be granted to any square-rigged vessel sailing from the port of Bombay until the following documents shall have been produced to the collector of customs or other officer:

3rd. A like certificate from the Indian naval store-keeper of all demands as regards his office on the vessel having been satisfied.

4th. A like certificate from the marine pay-master.

5th. A like certificate from the registrar of shipping.

6th. A list of the crew and (if any) of the passengers; but if none, then a declaration of the master to such effect.

Provided always that it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council in any cases of necessity or special emergency, to authorize the granting of such port clearance without the production of any one or more of the documents herein before enumerated, and on such terms and conditions as he may think fit.

LIII. The master of every vessel leaving any port in the Bombay Presidency shall, at the time of applying as above prescribed for a port clearance, deliver to the collector of customs or other principal customs officer of such port in duplicate a true manifest of the cargo on board, and if there be no cargo, then a blank manifest made out according to such form as may be prescribed by the collector of customs; and if such manifest so delivered shall not contain a full and true specification of all goods to be exported in the vessel, the said master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees; and if any goods or packages found on board in excess of the manifest so delivered, or differing in quantity, or in kind, or in marks, or in numbers, from the specification contained therein, shall be liable to be seized by any customs officer and confiscated, or charged with such increased duties not exceeding the value of such goods or packages as may be determined by the collector of customs.

LIV. If any goods shall be taken on board of any vessel after port clearance, it shall be incumbent on the master of such vessel to amend the export manifest of such vessel in presence of the collector of customs, unless a special permission be granted by that officer; and the master of any vessel who may contravene the provisions of this Section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

LV. If any vessel shall depart or attempt to depart without a port clearance as directed by this Act, the master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one thousand rupees, which may be recovered from the master, or any owner of the vessel.

LVI. No transshipment shall be made of any goods except under special order in writing from the collector of customs of the port; and an officer of customs shall in all cases be deputed to superintend the removal of the goods from vessel to vessel; and, if any goods are transhipped or any attempt be made to tranship any goods without a special order as aforesaid, such goods shall be liable to confiscation.

LVII. The Governor of Bombay in Council may declare by public notice, in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, what places within the same shall be ports for the landing and shipment of merchandise, and any goods landed or attempted to be landed at any other port than such as shall be so declared, shall be seized and confiscated.

LVIII. There shall be in every port of the Bombay Presidency one or more places for the landing and shipment of goods, and goods shall not be landed or embarked at any other place without the special order in writing of the collector of customs for the port; and, if any goods be landed or embarked, or an attempt be made to land or embark any goods at any other than the said authorized places, without such order, they shall be seized and confiscated.

LIX. The Governor of Bombay in Council may establish rules for the anchorage of the coasting and country craft of the British territories, for the delivery of manifests of the cargo of such vessels, and for the landing of goods therefrom, and shipping and transshipping of goods therein; and whoever, being in charge of any such craft or being owner of the vessel or of any part of her cargo, shall knowingly contravene any such rule, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for each offence.

LX. Goods which shall be brought to be passed through the custom house either for importation or exportation by sea shall be liable to confiscation if the packages in which the same may be contained shall be found not to correspond with the description of them given in the application for passing them through the custom house, or if the contents thereof be found not to have been correctly described in regard to sort, quality or quantity, or if in or among the packages any goods not stated in the application be found concealed in or mixed up with the specified goods.

LXI. Any exported goods which shall be found in the harbour, or any imported goods which shall be found on the wharf, of any port under the Bombay Presidency, shall be liable to confiscation, unless the owner, consignee, or other parties interested in the said goods, shall prove in the case of exported goods that they have been duly passed through the custom house, or, in the case of imported goods, that they have been landed according to the rules prescribed by this Act, preparatory to their being so passed.

LXII. The Governor of Bombay in Council, by an order in Council, may fix and from time to time alter rates of rent to be charged on goods placed in the Government warehouses, or which may be, beyond such period as may be determined by the Governor in Council, lying on the custom house wharf or other authorized landing places.

LXIII. The unshipping, carrying, shipping and landing of all goods, and the bringing of the same to the proper place for examination or for weighing, and the putting the same into and out of the scales, shall be performed by or at the expense of the importer or exporter of such goods.

LXIV. The collector of customs, whenever he shall see fit, may require that goods brought by sea, and stowed in bulk, shall be weighed or measured on board ship before being sent to land, and may levy duty according to the result of such weighing or measurement.

LXV. The Governor of Bombay in Council, from time to time, may issue such rules as appear to him expedient for landing or shipping passenger's baggage, and passing the same through the custom house, and also for landing, shipping and clearing parcels forwarded by Her Majesty's or the East India Company's mails, or by other regular packets and passenger vessels; and when any baggage or parcels are made over to the custom house officer, for the purpose of being landed, a fee of such amount as the Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time direct shall be chargeable thereon, as compensation for the expense and trouble incurred in landing and depositing the same in the custom house.

LXVI. If any person, after goods have been landed and before they have been passed through the custom house, removes or attempts to remove them with the intention of defrauding the revenue, the goods shall be liable to confiscation, unless it shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the collector of customs, that the removal was not sanctioned by the owner or by any person having an interest in or power over the goods; on such proof, the goods shall not be liable to confiscation, but the party or parties so removing or attempting to remove the goods, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding the value of the said goods.

LXVII. In case of any goods landed from any vessel not being claimed and cleared from the custom house within three months from the date of entry of the ship in which such goods were imported, the collector, after publication of a description of the same in the Government Gazette, may sell the same on account of the duties and other charges due thereon; and the balance remaining after deducting the said duties and charges shall be held in deposit and paid to the owner on application; provided that such application be made within two years of the sale of the goods, or good reason be shewn why such application has not been so made.

LXVIII. If the Governor of Bombay in Council shall see fit for the security of customs at any port to maintain special establishments of boats for landing and shipping merchandise, or to license and register the cargo boats plying in any ports, then, after due notification thereof, no person shall convey goods to or from any vessel in such port otherwise than in the boats so authorized and prescribed, except under special permit from the collector of customs at the port; and any goods found on board of other boats than those so authorized for the port, shall be liable to be seized by any officer of customs and shall be liable to confiscation; and the tindal or owner of any such boat shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

LXIX. When the Governor of Bombay in Council shall see fit to maintain at any port an establishment of officers to be sent on board of vessels to watch their unloading and lading, then, after due notification shall have been given that such establishment is so maintained at any port, the collector of customs at that port shall have power at his discretion to send one or more officers of such establishment to remain on board of any vessel in such port by night and by day until the vessel shall leave the port, or it shall be otherwise ordered by the collector.

LXX. Any master of such vessel at such port, who shall refuse to receive an officer so deputed with one servant on board, or who shall not afford such officer and servant suitable shelter and accommodation while on board, and likewise furnish them with a due allowance of fresh water if necessary, and with the means of cooking on board, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for each day during which such officer and servant continue on board, and shall not be received and provided with suitable shelter and accommodation.

LXXI. If application be made to the collector for an extension of the period allowed in Section LI. of this Act for the discharge of the import cargo of any vessel on board of which a custom house officer shall have been placed, and the collector may see fit to grant any such extension, the master of such vessel shall be charged with the wages of such officer and other expenses, for such period as such officer may be detained on board beyond the period fixed by Section LI. of this Act.

LXXII. If any officer shall be placed on board for the purpose of superintending the lading of any vessel, and the unlading and lading of such vessel be continuous, then a period of twenty days shall be allowed for taking in export cargo; and the said period shall be calculated from the termination of the period allowed for discharging cargo by Section LI. of this Act; and the master thereof shall be charged for the wages and expenses of the customs officer on board after the expiration of such additional period. But, if the unlading and lading of any vessel be not continuous, and a customs officer is appointed to superintend the lading thereof, then the period of thirty days shall be allowed from the date of entry of the vessel outwards, and the master of the vessel shall be charged for the wages and expenses of the customs officer on board after the expiration of that period.

LXXIII. When the unlading and lading of any vessel is not continuous, the customs officer shall be removed from on board such vessel so soon as the import cargo has been fully discharged, and shall be replaced on board such vessel on the entry outwards of such vessel; and the master of any such vessel who, before a customs officer has again been placed in such vessel, shall put on board or cause or suffer to be put on board of such vessel, any goods whatever, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, and the goods shall be liable to be re-landed for examination at the expense of the shippers, upon requisition to that effect from the collector of customs.

LXXIV. Whenever a collector of customs shall see cause to direct that any vessel shall be searched, he shall issue his warrant or written order for such search, addressed to any officer under his authority; and upon production of such order, the officer bearing it may require any cabins, lockers, or bulk heads, to be opened in his presence, and if they be not opened upon his requisition, may break the same open; and any goods found concealed and not duly accounted for to the satisfaction of the collector of customs shall be liable to seizure and confiscation; and any master or person in charge of a vessel who shall resist such officer, or refuse to allow the vessel to be searched when so ordered by the collector of customs, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

LXXV. If any officer of customs shall see cause to search any person on board, or who shall have landed from any vessel, or any person passing or having passed through the custom house or any custom station, such person, before being searched, may require such officer to take him before the collector or a justice of the peace, who shall determine whether there is reasonable ground to suppose that such person has any uncustomed or prohibited goods on his person; and if such collector or justice shall think there is reasonable ground for such supposition, then he shall direct such person to be searched in such manner as he shall think fit, otherwise he shall forthwith discharge such person; but no female shall be searched otherwise than privately, or by any other person than a female duly authorized by such collector or justice; and any officer who shall not take such person with reasonable despatch before such collector or justice when so required, or who shall require any person to be searched without having reasonable ground to suppose that he has uncustomed or prohibited goods on his person, or who shall cause any female to be unlawfully searched, shall be liable to forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees; and if any person suspected of having any uncustomed or prohibited goods on his person, or in his possession, shall, on being questioned by any officer of customs in regard thereto, deny the same, and any such goods shall after such denial be found on his person, or in his possession, such goods shall be seized and confiscated, and such person shall forfeit double the value of such goods in addition to the goods confiscated.

LXXVI. Any officer of customs acting under the warrant of any commissioner or collector of customs, may take a constable and a sufficient number of peons (who shall, on the requisition of the collector for such purpose be furnished by the superintendent of police in Bombay or the proper police authority in any zillah) and between sunrise and sunset may enter into and search any house, shop, cellar, warehouse, room, or other place, and in case of resistance may break open doors, chests, trunks and other packages, and may seize and bring thence any uncustomed or prohibited goods, and put and secure the same in the custom house warehouse in the port next to the place whence such goods shall be so taken as aforesaid; and such goods shall be liable to confiscation; provided always that no commissioner or collector of customs shall issue any such search warrant except upon information on oath or solemn declaration formally laid before him.

LXXVII. No cargo boat laden with goods intended for exportation by sea shall make fast to, or lie alongside of any vessel on board of which there shall be a customs officer stationed, unless there shall be onboard the boat, or have been received by the said customs officer, a custom house permit or order for the shipment of the goods, and the goods on board of any boat that may so be alongside, or be made fast to a vessel, and not covered by a custom house pass accompanying them, or previously received by the customs officers on board the said vessel, shall be liable to seizure and confiscation.

LXXVIII. All fines, for the recovery of which no special provision is herein before made, may be recovered, on conviction of the offender, before a magistrate or other person competent to adjudicate on the offences, and payment thereof may be enforced under Act II. of 1839.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 2nd January, 1852.*

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 2nd January 1852, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. II. OF 1852.

An Act for the collection of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the collection of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers, It is enacted as follows :

I. Duties of Customs shall be levied on Goods passing by land into or out of Foreign European Settlements, situated on the line of Coast within the limits of the Presidency of Bombay, at the rates prescribed in the Schedules of Act I. of 1852, at the ports of that Presidency.

II. The Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council may declare, by notice to be published in the official Gazette of that Presidency, that the Territory of any Native Chief, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Civil Authorities of that Presidency, shall be deemed to be Foreign Territory, and may declare Goods passing into, or out of such territory liable either to the duty fixed by the Schedules of Act I. of 1852 for Goods imported or exported at the ports of that Presidency, or to double the said duties as the Governor of Bombay in Council may think fit.

III. For the levy of duties of Customs as above provided on Goods exported by land to, or imported by land from, such Foreign Territories, Customs Stations may be established at such places as may be determined by the said Governor of Bombay in Council; and every Officer at every such Station shall have power to detain Goods passing into, or out of any such Foreign Territory, and to examine and ascertain the quantities and kinds thereof; and such Goods shall not be allowed to pass across the Frontier line out of or into the Territory of the East India Company, until the owner or person in charge thereof shall produce and deliver a certificate shewing that the Customs duty leviable thereupon has been paid.

IV. Any Officer of Sea Customs may receive money on account of Customs, and grant certificates of the payment thereof; and any such certificate, being delivered to any Station Officer, shall entitle the Goods therein mentioned to cross the Frontier into or out of the East India Company's Territories, provided that the goods correspond with the specification thereof contained in such certificates, and that the certificates shew the entire amount of duty leviable on those Goods to have been duly paid; and if upon examination the Goods brought to any Station be found not to correspond with the specification entered in the certificate presented with the same, the difference shall be noted on the face of the certificate; and if the payment of duty certified therein shall not cover the entire amount of duty leviable on the Goods, as ascertained at such examination, the Goods shall be detained until further certificate for the difference shall be produced.

V. The said Governor of Bombay in Council shall appoint proper Officers to receive Customs duties on Goods crossing the land Frontier of the said Foreign Territories; and the Officers so appointed shall, on the receipt of money tendered as Customs duty, be bound to give any merchant or other person applying for the same a certificate of payment, and to enter therein the specification of Goods, with the values and description thereof, according to the statement furnished by the person so applying; provided only, that the proper duty leviable thereupon, according to the descriptions and values stated, be covered by the payment made.

VI. No certificate shall be received at any Station that shall bear date more than thirty days before the date when the Goods arrived at such Station; but any person, who has taken out a certificate from any authorized Receiver of Customs duties, shall be entitled, at any time within the said period of thirty days, on satisfying such Receiver that such certificate has not been used, and on delivering up the original, to receive a renewed certificate with a fresh date without further payment of duty.

VII. The said Governor of Bombay in Council may prescribe, by public notice in the official Gazette of the Presidency of Bombay, by what ways Goods shall be allowed to pass into or out of any such Foreign Territory, as is described in Sections I. and II. of this Act; and after such notice, Goods which may be brought to any Station established on other roads or passes than those so prescribed, shall, if provided with a certificate, be sent back; and if not provided with a certificate, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation by the Collector of Customs, unless the person in charge thereof shall be able to satisfy the said Collector, that his carrying them by that road or pass was from ignorance or accident.

VIII. Goods unlawfully passed, or attempted to be passed unlawfully across any Frontier guarded by Stations, between sunset and sunrise, shall be seized and confiscated.

IX. Any Station Officer who shall permit Goods to pass across the Frontier, when not covered by a sufficient certificate, or who shall permit Goods to pass by any road or pass other than the prescribed ways, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

X. Any Station Officer who shall needlessly and vexatiously injure Goods under the pretence of examination, or in the course of his examination, or who shall wrongfully detain Goods for which there be produced a sufficient certificate, shall, on conviction before any Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

XI. All confiscations and penalties under this Act may be adjudicated by Officers competent to adjudicate like confiscations and penalties under Act I. of 1852, and such Officers shall be subject to the same liabilities and rules in adjudicating such penalties and confiscations as they are subject to when adjudicating the like confiscations and penalties under the provisions of the aforesaid Act.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 2nd January 1852.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council in the Legislative branch of the Home Department under date the 2nd January is published for general information :

Read a second time the draft of a proposed Act, dated the 11th July 1851, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 16th July 1851 for summary suits for arrears of rent and sales of saleable tenures to be held within the judicial district in which the lands are situated.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information.

ACT No. — OF 1852.

For the trial of summary suits for arrears of rent, and for the sales of saleable tenures, within the judicial district in which the lands are situated.

Whereas by Regulation VIII. of 1831 of the Bengal Code the hearing and decision of summary suits or claims relating to arrears or exactions of rents were transferred from the Judges of the Zillah or City Courts to the Collectors of the several Districts; and whereas, by Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Bengal Code, the superintendence of the sales of Putnee Talooks and other saleable tenures of the class specified in Clause 1, Section VIII. Regulation VIII. of 1819, was transferred to the Collector or Deputy Collector of Land Revenue, or Head Assistant to the Collector or Deputy Collector, subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of Revenue for the Division; and whereas by Act VIII. of 1835 the conduct of sales of Talooks or other saleable tenures in execution of summary decrees for rent, in conformity with Regulation VII. of 1799 of the same Code was transferred to the Collectors of Land Revenue; and whereas doubts have been entertained as to the District within which such summary suits or claims should be decided, and such sales made, by reason that the jurisdiction of the several Zillah and City Courts is not conterminous with the jurisdiction of the several Collectors of Land Revenue, It is enacted as follows :

I. No order in any such summary suit, and no such sale made as aforesaid, which has not been questioned before a Court of competent judicature, before the passing of this Act, on the ground of having been decided or made by a Collector having no jurisdiction therein, shall be liable to be annulled or disputed on that ground.

II. Where the lands which are the subject of such summary suits or such sales as aforesaid are situate in a judicial district, other than that of the Collector or Deputy Collector who receives the Sudder Malgoozaree of such lands, all such summary suits and sales as aforesaid shall be tried and decided or made by the Collector or Deputy Collector who has jurisdiction in the greater part of the judicial district in which the lands are situated.

III. Where the lands which are the subject of such summary suits or such sales as aforesaid, are situate in a judicial district, which is divided into two or more Collectorate districts, all such summary suits and sales as aforesaid shall be tried and decided or made by the Collector or Deputy Collector who has jurisdiction in that part of the judicial district in which the lands are situated.

IV. Sections IX., XI., XIII., XV. and XVII. of Regulation VIII. of 1819 of the Bengal Code, shall be applicable to sales of under tenures under the provisions of Act VIII. of 1835.

Ordered that the Draft now read be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 2nd day of March next.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

XXI. In case any debt or any certain liability shall have been allowed as aforesaid, and shall not within fourteen days after the report has become absolute as to such debt or liability, or after the same shall have been allowed by the said Court, be paid or provided for by appropriation to the satisfaction of the person who has established such liability, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively by order to be made, in case of any debt remaining due, upon the application by motion or petition of the person to whom the debt remains due, and on notice to the Executors or Administrators, and in case of any certain liability remaining unprovided for by appropriation, upon the application; by motion or petition of the person by whom such liability has been established, or of the Executors or Administrators, and on notice by the party applying to the other of them, to order payment of the debts which may have been allowed and remain unpaid, and to provide for the certain liabilities which may have been allowed and remain unprovided for, in like manner as the same could or might have been paid or provided for in a suit for that purpose instituted by Bill, or to refer it to the Master to take an account of the debts and certain liabilities allowed as aforesaid which remain unpaid or unprovided for, and also the usual accounts of the personal estate of the deceased person, with all usual and proper directions; and every such order shall have the same force and effect and shall be prosecuted and carried on in like manner as a decree in a creditor's suit instituted by bill.

XXII. In case any contingent liability shall be allowed by the said report or by the said Courts respectively, it shall be lawful for the said Courts, by order, to be made upon the application of the Executors or Administrators, by motion or petition, on notice to the person who may have established such contingent liability, to order such sum of money, part of the estate of the deceased person, as to the said Courts respectively shall seem just, to be set apart and appropriated for answering such contingent liability, and to give such directions as the said Courts shall think fit touching the payment of such sum of money into Court, and the investment thereof, and the payment, application, or accumulation of the interest or dividends thereof in the meantime and until the same shall be required to answer such liability, and when such liability shall be ascertained or determined, to give such directions as to the payment of such sum out of Court as the said Courts respectively shall deem right: Provided always, that no order to be made as aforesaid shall in any manner bind the assets so appropriated as against the persons entitled to the estate of the deceased subject to the contingent liability; and any person interested in such appropriated assets may apply to the Court touching the same, as he may be advised.

XXIII. After the filing of such report as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively upon the application of the Executors or Administrators of the deceased, by order, to be made on motion, to restrain by injunction any proceedings at law against them by any person having or claiming to have any demand upon the estate of the deceased by reason of any debt or liability other than the persons who may have established contingent liabilities under the said order for which no appropriation may have been made.

XXIV. In case no debt or liability, or no debt or liability other than a contingent liability, shall have been allowed as aforesaid, or in case any debt or liability other than as aforesaid shall have been allowed as aforesaid, then after the same shall have been paid or provided for by appropriation as aforesaid, all payments made by the Executors or Administrators, or any of them, on account of the estate of the deceased person, and all dispositions of such assets made by them or any of them on account of such estate, shall, as against all persons having or claiming to have any demand upon such estate by reason of any debt or liability, other than persons who may have established under the said order any contingent liability for which no such appropriation as aforesaid may have been made, be as good and effectual as if the same had been made under a decree of the said Courts respectively: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect or prejudice the rights of any creditor or other person having any demand or claim upon the estate of the deceased against any assets so paid or disposed of, or against the persons to whom such payment or disposition may have been made, or against any assets appropriated under the provisions of this Act, and the appropriation of which, if made under a decree of the said Court, in a suit to which he was not a party, would not have been binding upon him.

XXV. All exceptions for scandal, impertinence, and insufficiency, which according to the existing practice of the said Courts are referred to the Masters of the said Courts, shall not any longer be so referred, but shall be heard and determined by the said Courts in the first instance.

XXVI. Notwithstanding any rule or practice of the said Courts to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively, at the hearing of any cause or of any further directions therein, to receive proof by affidavit or otherwise of all proper parties being before the Court, and of all such matters as are necessary to be proved for enabling the said Courts respectively to order payment of any monies belonging to any married woman, and of all such other matters, not directly in issue in the cause, as in the opinion of the said Courts respectively may safely and properly be so proved.

XXVII. Provided always, that if the said Governor General of India in Council shall, by any resolution passed at any time within six months after such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall have been laid before him, resolve that the whole or any part of such Rules or Orders ought not to continue in force, in such case the whole or such part thereof as shall be so included in such resolution shall, from and after such resolution, cease to be binding and obligatory on the said Court; provided that every such Rule or Order so expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act which shall not be laid before the Governor General of India in Council within the time by this Act limited for that purpose shall, from and after the expiration of such time, be absolutely void and of no effect. Provided always, that nothing in this clause contained shall be construed so that the said Rules or Orders should not be transmitted as heretofore to Her Majesty in Privy Council for approbation.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative.

The 9th January, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 9th of January 1852.

ACT No. — OF 1852.

An Act for further Improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in Her Majesty's Courts of Justice in the Territories of the East India Company.

Whereas offenders frequently escape conviction on their trials, by reason of the technical strictness of criminal proceedings in matters not material to the merits of the case; and whereas such technical strictness may safely be relaxed in many instances, so as to insure the punishment of the guilty, without depriving the accused of any just means of defence, and whereas a failure of justice often takes place on the trial of persons charged with felony and misdemeanor by reason of variances between the statement in the indictment on which the trial is had, and the proof of names, dates, matters, and circumstances therein mentioned, not material to the merits of the case, and by the misstatement whereof the person on trial cannot have been prejudiced in his defence, It is hereby enacted as follows:

I. From and after the coming of this Act into operation, whenever, on the trial of any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, there shall appear to be any variance between the statement in such indictment and the evidence offered in proof thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which the trial shall be had, if it shall consider such variance not material to the merits of the case, and that the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defence on such merits, to order such indictment to be amended, according to the proof, by some officer of the Court or other person, both in that part of the indictment where such variance occurs, and in every other part of the indictment which it may become necessary to amend, on such terms as to postponing the trial to be had before the same or another jury, as such Court shall think reasonable; and after any such amendment the trial shall proceed, whenever the same shall be proceeded with, in the same manner in all respects, and with the same consequences, both with respect to the liability of witnesses to be indicted for perjury and otherwise, as if no such variance had occurred: provided that, in all such cases where the trial shall be so postponed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Court to respite the recognizances of the prosecutor and witnesses, and of the defendant and his surety or sureties, if any, accordingly, in which case the prosecutor and witnesses shall be bound to attend to prosecute and give evidence respectively, and the defendant shall be bound to attend to be tried, at the time and place to which such trial shall be postponed, without entering into any fresh recognizances for that purpose, in such and the same manner as if they were originally bound by their recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, at the time and place to which such trial shall have been so postponed: provided also, that where any such trial shall be to be had before another jury, the crown and the defendant shall respectively be entitled to the same challenges as they were respectively entitled to before the first jury was sworn.

II. Every verdict and judgment which shall be given after the making of any amendment under the provisions of this Act, shall be of the same force and effect in all respects as if the indictment had originally been in the same form in which it was after such amendment was made.

III. If it shall become necessary at any time, for any purpose whatsoever to draw up a formal record in any case where any amendment shall have been made under the provisions of this Act, such record shall be drawn up in the form in which the indictment was after such amendment was made, without taking any notice of the fact of such amendment having been made.

IV. In any indictment for murder or manslaughter preferred after the coming of this Act into operation, it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which, or the means by which, the death of the deceased was caused, but it shall be sufficient, in every indictment for murder, to charge that the defendant did feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought kill and murder the deceased, and it shall be sufficient in every indictment for manslaughter to charge that the defendant did feloniously kill and slay the deceased.

V. In any indictment for forging, uttering, stealing, embezzling, destroying, or concealing, or for obtaining by false pretences, any instrument, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or fac-simile thereof, or otherwise describing the same, or the value thereof.

VI. In any indictment for engraving, or making the whole or any part of any instrument, matter or thing whatsoever, or for using or having the unlawful possession of any plate, or other material upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing whatsoever shall have been engraved or made, or for having the unlawful possession of any paper upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing shall have been made or printed, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument, matter, or thing by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, without setting out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part of such instrument, matter, or thing.

VII. In all other cases, wherever it shall be necessary to make any averment in any indictment as to any instrument, whether the same consists wholly or in part of writing, print, or figures, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part thereof.

VIII. From and after the coming of this Act into operation, it shall be sufficient in any indictment for forging, uttering, offering, disposing of, or putting off any instrument whatsoever, or for obtaining or attempting to obtain any property by false pretences, to allege that the defendant did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging the intent of the defendant to be to defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any of the offences in this section mentioned, it shall not be necessary to prove an intent on the part of the defendant to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant did the act charged with an intent to defraud.

IX. And whereas offenders often escape conviction by reason that such persons ought to have been charged with attempting to commit offences, and not with the actual commission thereof; it is enacted, that if on the trial of any person charged with any felony or misdemeanor, it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence that the defendant did not complete the offence charged, but that he was guilty only of an attempt to commit the same, such person shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that the defendant is not guilty of the felony or misdemeanor charged, but is guilty of an attempt to commit the same, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for attempting to commit the particular felony or misdemeanor charged in the said indictment; and no person so tried as herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an attempt to commit the felony or misdemeanor for which he was so tried.

X. And whereas it is enacted by the 8th Section of Act XXXI. of 1838 that "on the trial of any person for any of the offences thereinbefore mentioned, or for any felony whatever where the crime charged shall include an assault against the person, it shall be lawful for the jury to acquit of the felony, and to find a verdict of guilty of assault against the person indicted, if the evidence shall warrant such finding;" and whereas great difficulties have arisen in the construction of such enactment: for remedy thereof it is enacted that the said enactment shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XI. If upon the trial of any person upon any indictment for robbery, it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence that the defendant did not commit the crime of robbery, but that he did commit an assault with intent to rob, the defendant shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that the defendant is guilty of an assault with intent to rob, and thereupon such defendant shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for feloniously assaulting with intent to rob; and no person so tried as is herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an assault with intent to commit the robbery for which he was so tried.

XII. If upon the trial of any person for any misdemeanor, it shall appear that the facts given in evidence amount in law to a felony, such person shall not by reason

Verdicts and judgments valid after amendments.

The means by which the injury was inflicted need not be specified in indictments for murder and manslaughter.

Forms of indictment in cases of forgery and uttering, stealing, and embezzling, or obtaining by false pretences.

In engraving plates, &c.

In other cases.

Intent to defraud particular persons need not be alleged or proved in cases of forgery, uttering, or false pretences.

A party indicted for felony or misdemeanor may be found guilty of an attempt to commit the same, and shall be liable to the same consequences as if charged with and convicted of the attempt only. No person so tried to be afterwards prosecuted for the same.

Repeal of the 8th Section of Act XXXI. of 1838.

On the trial of an indictment for robbery, the jury may convict of an assault with intent to rob: no person so tried to be afterwards prosecuted for the same.

Person tried for misdemeanor or not to be acquitted if the offence turn out to be felony, unless the Court so direct.

thereof be entitled to be acquitted of such misdemeanor; and no person tried for such misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for felony on the same facts, unless the Court before which such trial may be had shall think fit, in its discretion, to discharge the jury from giving any verdict upon such trial, and to direct such person to be indicted for felony, in which case such person may be dealt with in all respects as if he had not been put upon his trial for such misdemeanor.

XIII. If upon the trial any person indicted for embezzlement as a clerk, servant, or person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a clerk or servant, it shall be proved that he took the property in question in any such manner as to amount in law to larceny, he shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that such person is not guilty of embezzlement, but is guilty of simple larceny, or of larceny as a clerk, servant, or person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a clerk or servant, as the case may be, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for such larceny; and if upon the trial of any person indicted for larceny it shall be proved that he took the property in question in any such manner as to amount in law to embezzlement, he shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that such person is not guilty of larceny, but is guilty of embezzlement, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for such embezzlement; and no person so tried for embezzlement or larceny as aforesaid shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for larceny or embezzlement upon the same facts.

XIV. the 9th January, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 9th January, 1852:

ACT No. OF 1852.

An Act to authorize the employment of Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors in the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas the exigencies of the public service require the employment of Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors in the Revenue Department within the Presidency of Bombay, it is hereby enacted as follows:

I. The Governor of Bombay in Council may appoint in any Zillah or District within the said Presidency one or more Uncovenanted Deputy Collectors, with the powers hereinafter mentioned.

II. Every person appointed a Deputy Collector under this Act shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, make and subscribe before the Collector and Magistrate of the Zillah a solemn declaration to the same effect as the oath prescribed in Appendix A. annexed to Regulation XVI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code, the words "the East India Company" being inserted in such declaration, instead of the words "the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies" and the words "United Company" in the said oath contained.

III. Deputy Collectors appointed under this Act shall discharge such of the duties and exercise such of the powers of the Covenanted Assistants in the Revenue Department, as shall be prescribed from time to time in each case by the Governor of Bombay in Council, and shall be subject to the same control and authority in all respects as such assistants respectively.

IV. Section XI. of Regulation XVI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code, shall be applicable to Deputy Collectors appointed under this Act, who shall hold their Offices subject to the provisions of the said section.

V. No Deputy Collector appointed under this Act shall be dismissed from Office without the sanction of the Governor of Bombay in Council. Whenever there is reason to believe that a Deputy Collector is disqualified, by neglect, incapacity, corruption, or other misbehaviour, for continuance in office, a report shall be made by his superior in the Revenue Department for the consideration and orders of the Governor of Bombay in Council, who shall be competent to suspend such Deputy Collector, and order a further enquiry into his conduct, or direct his immediate dismissal, as may appear just and proper.

Ordered that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 9th day of April next.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 16th January 1852, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. III. OF 1852.

An Act to amend the law relating to spirituous and intoxicating liquors, drugs and preparations within the Territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas Chapters XI. and XII. of Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code have been found to be difficult of application in some parts of the territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay, owing to local and peculiar causes, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Governor of Bombay in Council may introduce into any part of the said territories such arrangements for the assessment and collection of the revenue derivable from the manufacture and retail sale of spirits, as local circumstances in each case, in the judgment of the said Governor in Council, may require, the same not being inconsistent or incompatible with the provisions of this Act.

II. The licences mentioned in Section LVIII., Clause 1, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code may be granted by the Collector at his discretion for the manufacture of spirits at any place within his Collectorate, whether a sudder distillery be there established or not.

III. It shall not be imperative on the Collector to accept the highest offer for the farm of the Abkaree duties under Section LX., Clause 2, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the said Code, but the Collector shall be at liberty to use his discretion as to the tender he will accept under the general instructions of Government.

IV. No person shall directly or indirectly retail in the said territories spirits, however or wheresoever manufactured, except under the authority of a licence from the Collector, to be granted in the form of Appendix I. to the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or in such form, and after payment of such fee, as Government may, from time to time, appoint.

V. Spirits may be manufactured in the said territories for exportation, or removal under a licence from the Collector, but not otherwise; and such licence, when granted, shall specify the spirit so authorized to be manufactured, the place at which, and the period for which, the manufacture may be carried on, and that the same is permitted for the purpose of removal or exportation only.

VI. Spirits manufactured under the last Section shall not exceed the strength which may, from time to time, be declared by public notification in each district, and shall be liable to the payment of such duty as the Governor in Council shall, from time to time, impose. Liquor found to exceed the prescribed standard shall be liable to double duty, or confiscation at the discretion of the Collector.

VII. Spirits manufactured under the fifth Section of this Act, shall not be removed from the place of manufacture, except under a pass from the Collector, certifying the payment of the aforesaid duty, and specifying the name of the person exporting or removing the same, the quantity of spirits, their destination, the route by which they are to be conveyed, and the dates from and to which the pass shall be in force, which pass shall exempt the spirits lawfully removed under it from the payment of any further duty in their progress through the same territories, excepting always such import or Customs duty, if any, as may be payable at the place of their destination under any Act or Regulation now or hereafter to be in force.

VIII. The Collector may place such establishments on the premises where the manufacture of spirits for exportation or removal is permitted, and may adopt such other precautions as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act having reference thereto.

IX. Spirits imported by land from any part of the territories of the East India Company, whether subordinate to the Government of Bombay or not, into any other part of the said territories subordinate to the said Government, shall be liable on importation to the same rate of duty under the same circumstances and rules as are provided in Section XX. of Act No. I. of 1852, for amending the Customs laws of the Bombay Presidency with respect to spirits imported by sea.

X. It shall not be lawful in any part of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay to manufacture or prepare for sale, or sell directly or indirectly, any intoxicating drugs or materials, or any intoxicating drink or preparation manufactured from Bhang, Ganja, Grain, Opium or other materials, of what nature or description soever, except under a licence from the Collector of the Zillah, and it shall be competent to the Collector to refuse, or to re-call such licence whenever he shall deem it expedient, and every such licence when granted shall specify the name of the drug, material, drink, or preparation so authorized to be manufactured or sold, the place or district of manufacture or sale, and the length of time for which such licence is to run, and any other terms or conditions which the Governor of Bombay in Council may, from time to time, deem it expedient to require, and such fees shall be demanded, from time to time, on the grant of such licences as the said Governor in Council may sanction.

XI. It shall not be lawful to mix any noxious drug or material in, or by other process to adulterate spirits manufactured under the provisions of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or of this Act.

XII. All persons offending against, or aiding others to offend against, directly or indirectly, against any of the provisions of this Act, or committing a breach of any of the conditions of a licence to be granted under this Act, or obstructing Officers or others in the execution of their duties connected with any of its provisions, shall be punished by fine not exceeding Rupees five hundred, to be commuted, in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding six months; and any person having in his possession intoxicating drinks or preparations manufactured contrary to the provisions of this Act, or for which he is unable satisfactorily to account, shall be deemed to be possessed of them illegally, and shall be subject to the penalties above specified.

XIII. The powers conferred on the Collector by Chapter XIII. of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, shall extend and be applicable to the provisions of this Act, so far as the same are capable of being so applied.

XIV. The Collector shall have full powers to seize and destroy all unlicensed liquor, preparations, drugs, or materials, and all unlicensed stills, and to sell the same, if deemed expedient, on behalf of Government.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative.
The 9th January, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 9th of January 1852.

ACT NO. — OF 1852.

An Act for further Improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in Her Majesty's Courts of Justice in the Territories of the East India Company.

Whereas offenders frequently escape conviction on their trials, by reason of the technical strictness of criminal proceedings in matters not material to the merits of the case; and whereas such technical strictness may safely be relaxed in many instances, so as to insure the punishment of the guilty, without depriving the accused of any just means of defence, and whereas a failure of justice often takes place on the trial of persons charged with felony and misdemeanor by reason of variances between the statement in the indictment on which the trial is had, and the proof of names, dates, matters, and circumstances therein mentioned, not material to the merits of the case, and by the misstatement whereof the person on trial cannot have been prejudiced in his defence, It is hereby enacted as follows:

I. From and after the coming of this Act into operation, whenever, on the trial of any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, there shall appear to be any variance between the statement in such indictment and the evidence offered in proof thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which the trial shall be had, if it shall

The Court may amend certain variances not material to the merits of the case, and by which the defendant cannot be prejudiced in his defence, and may either proceed with or postpone the trial to be had before the same or another jury.

operation, whenever, on the trial of any indictment for any felony or misdemeanor, there shall appear to be any variance between the statement in such indictment and the evidence offered in proof thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which the trial shall be had, if it shall consider such variance not material to the merits of the case, and that the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defence on such merits, to order such indictment to be amended, according to the proof, by some officer of the Court or other person, both in that part of the indictment where such variance occurs, and in every other part of the indictment which it may become necessary to amend, on such terms as to postponing the trial to be had before the same or another jury, as such Court shall think reasonable; and after any such amendment the trial shall proceed, whenever the same shall be proceeded with, in the same manner in all respects, and with the same consequences, both with respect to the liability of witnesses to be indicted for perjury and otherwise, as if no such variance had occurred: provided that, in all such cases where the trial shall be so postponed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Court to respite the recognizances of the prosecutor and witnesses, and of the defendant and his surety or sureties, if any, accordingly, in which case the prosecutor and witnesses shall be bound to attend to prosecute and give evidence respectively, and the defendant shall be bound to attend to be tried, at the time and place to which such trial shall be postponed, without entering into any fresh recognizances for that purpose, in such and the same manner as if they were originally bound by their recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, at the time and place to which such trial shall have been so postponed: provided also, that where any such trial shall be to be had before another jury, the crown and the defendant shall respectively be entitled to the same challenges as they were respectively entitled to before the first jury was sworn.

II. Every verdict and judgment which shall be given after the making of any amendment under the provisions of this Act, shall be of the same force and effect in all respects as if the indictment had originally been in the same form in which it was after such amendment was made.

III. If it shall become necessary at any time, for any purpose whatsoever to draw up a formal record in any case where any amendment shall have been made under the provisions of this Act, such record shall be drawn up in the form in which the indictment was after such amendment was made, without taking any notice of the fact of such amendment having been made.

IV. In any indictment for murder or manslaughter preferred after the coming of this Act into operation, it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which, or the means by which, the death of the deceased was caused, but it shall be sufficient, in every indictment for murder, to charge that the defendant did feloniously, wilfully, and of his malice aforethought kill and murder the deceased, and it shall be sufficient in every indictment for manslaughter to charge that the defendant did feloniously kill and slay the deceased.

V. In any indictment for forging, uttering, stealing, embezzling, destroying, or concealing, or for obtaining by false pretences, any instrument, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or fac-simile thereof, or otherwise describing the same, or the value thereof.

VI. In any indictment for engraving, or making the whole or any part of any instrument, matter or thing whatsoever, or for using or having the unlawful possession of any plate, or other material upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing whatsoever shall have been engraved or made, or for having the unlawful possession of any paper upon which the whole or any part of any instrument, matter, or thing whatsoever shall have been made or printed, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument, matter, or thing by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, without setting out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part of such instrument, matter, or thing.

VII. In all other cases, wherever it shall be necessary to make any averment in any indictment as to any instrument, whether the same consists wholly or in part of writing, print, or figures, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or fac-simile of the whole or any part thereof.

VIII. From and after the coming of this Act into operation, it shall be sufficient in any indictment for forging, uttering, offering, disposing of, or putting off any instrument whatsoever, or for obtaining or attempting to obtain any property by false pretences, to allege that the defendant did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging the intent of the defendant to be to defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any of the offences in this section mentioned, it shall not be necessary to prove an intent on the part of the defendant to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant did the act charged with an intent to defraud.

IX. And whereas offenders often escape conviction by reason that such persons ought to have been charged with attempting to commit offences, and not with the actual commission thereof; it is enacted, that if on the trial of any person charged with any felony or misdemeanor, it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence that the defendant did not complete the offence charged, but that he was guilty only of an attempt to commit the same, such person shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that the defendant is not guilty of the felony or misdemeanor charged, but is guilty of an attempt to commit the same, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for attempting to commit the particular felony or misdemeanor charged in the said indictment; and no person so tried as herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an attempt to commit the felony or misdemeanor for which he was so tried.

X. And whereas it is enacted by the 8th Section of Act XXXI. of 1838 that "on the trial of any person for any of the offences thereinbefore mentioned, or for any felony whatever where the crime charged shall include an assault against the person, it shall be lawful for the jury to acquit of the felony, and to find a verdict of guilty of assault against the person indicted, if the evidence shall warrant such finding:" and whereas great difficulties have arisen in the construction of such enactment: for remedy thereof it is enacted that the said enactment shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

XI. If upon the trial of any person upon any indictment for robbery, it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence that the defendant did not commit the crime of robbery, but that he did commit an assault with intent to rob, the defendant shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that the defendant is guilty of an assault with intent to rob, and thereupon such defendant shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for feloniously assaulting with intent to rob; and no person so tried as is herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an assault with intent to commit the robbery for which he was so tried.

XII. If upon the trial of any person for any misdemeanor, it shall appear that the facts given in evidence amount in law to a felony, such person shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted of such misdemeanor; and no person tried for such misdemeanor shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for felony on the same facts, unless the Court before which such trial may be had shall think fit, in its discretion, to discharge the jury from giving any verdict upon such trial, and to direct such person to be indicted for felony, in which case such person may be dealt with in all respects as if he had not been put upon his trial for such misdemeanor.

XIII. If upon the trial of any person indicted for embezzlement as a clerk, servant, or person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a clerk or servant, it shall be proved that he took the property in question in any such manner as to amount in law to larceny, he shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that such person is not guilty of embezzlement, but is guilty of simple larceny, or of larceny as a clerk, servant, or person employed for the purpose, or in the capacity of a clerk or servant, as the case may be, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for such larceny; and if upon the trial of any person indicted for larceny it shall be proved that he took the property in question in any such manner as to amount in law to embezzlement, he shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that such person is not guilty of larceny, but is guilty of embezzlement, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for such embezzlement; and no person so tried for embezzlement or larceny as aforesaid shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for larceny or embezzlement upon the same facts.

XIV. If upon the trial of two or more persons indicted for jointly receiving any property, it shall be proved that one or more of such persons separately received any part of such property, it shall be lawful for the jury to convict upon such indictment such of the said persons as shall be proved to have received any part of such property.

XV. And whereas it frequently happens that the principal in a felony is not in custody or amenable to justice, although several accessories to such felony or receivers at different times of stolen property the subject of such felony may be in custody or amenable to justice: for the prevention of several trials, it is enacted that any number of such accessories or receivers may be charged with substantive felonies in the same indictment, notwithstanding the principal felon shall not be included in the same indictment, or shall not be in custody or amenable to justice.

XVI. It shall be lawful to insert several counts in the same indictment against the same person for any number of distinct acts of stealing, not exceeding three, which may have been committed by him against the same person within the space of six calendar months from the first to the last of such acts, and to proceed thereon for all or any of them.

XVII. If upon the trial of any indictment for larceny, it shall appear that the property alleged in such indictment to have been stolen at one time was taken at different times, the prosecutor shall not by reason thereof be required to elect upon which taking he will proceed, unless it shall appear that there were more than three takings, or that more than the space of six calendar months elapsed between the first and the last of such takings; and in either of such last-mentioned cases the prosecutor shall be required to elect to proceed for such number of takings, not exceeding three, as appear to have taken place within the period of six calendar months from the first to the last of such takings.

XVIII. In every indictment in which it shall be necessary to make any averment as to any money or any note of any bank, it shall be sufficient to describe such money or bank-note simply as money, without specifying any particular coin or bank-note; and such allegation, so far as regards the description of the property, shall be sustained by proof of any amount of coin or of any bank-note, although the particular species of coin of which such amount was composed, or the particular nature of the bank-note, shall not be proved, and in cases of embezzlement and obtaining money or bank-notes by false pretences, by proof that the offender embezzled or obtained any piece of coin or any bank-note, or any portion of the value thereof, although such piece of coin or bank-note may have been delivered to him in order that some part of the value thereof should be returned to the party delivering the same, or to any other person, and such part shall have been returned accordingly.

XIX. In every indictment for perjury, or for unlawfully, wilfully, falsely, fraudulently, deceitfully, maliciously, or corruptly taking, making, signing, or subscribing any oath, affirmation, affidavit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged upon the defendant, and by what Court or before whom the oath, affirmation, declaration, affidavit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing was taken, made, signed, or subscribed, without setting forth the bill, answer, information, indictment, declaration, or any part of any proceeding either in law or in equity, and without setting forth the commission or authority of the Court or person before whom such offence was committed.

XX. In every indictment for subornation of perjury, or for corrupt bargaining or contracting with any person to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, or for inciting, causing, or procuring any person unlawfully, wilfully, falsely, fraudulently, deceitfully, maliciously or corruptly to take, make, sign or subscribe any oath, affirmation, declaration, affidavit, deposition, bill, answer, notice, certificate, or other writing, it shall be sufficient, wherever such perjury or other offence aforesaid shall have been actually committed, to allege the offence of the person who actually committed such perjury or other offence in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, and then to allege that the defendants unlawfully, wilfully, and corruptly did cause and procure the said person the said offence, in manner and form aforesaid, to do and commit; and wherever such perjury or other offence aforesaid shall not have been actually committed, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged upon the defendant, without setting forth or averring any of the matters or things hereinbefore rendered unnecessary to be set forth or averred in the case of wilful and corrupt perjury.

XXI. No indictment for any offence shall be held insufficient for want of the averment of any matter unnecessary to be proved, nor for the omission of the words "as appears by the record," or of the words "with force and arms," or of the words "against the peace," nor for the insertion of the words "against the form of the statute," instead of "against the form of the statutes," or vice versa, nor for that any person mentioned in the indictment is designated by a name of office, or other descriptive appellation, instead of his proper name, nor for omitting to state the time at which the offence was committed in any case where time is not of the essence of the offence, nor for stating the time imperfectly, nor for stating the offence to have been committed on a day subsequent to the finding of the indictment, or on an impossible day, or on a day that never happened, nor for want of a proper or perfect venue, nor for want of a proper or formal conclusion, nor for want of or imperfection in the addition of any defendant, nor for want of the statement of the value or price of any matter or thing, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, in any case where the value or price, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, is not of the essence of the offence.

XXII. Every objection to any indictment for any formal defect apparent on the face thereof shall be taken, by demurrer or motion to quash such indictment, before the jury shall be sworn, and not afterwards; and every Court before which any such objection shall be taken for any formal defect may, if it be thought necessary, cause the indictment to be forthwith amended in such particular by some officer of the Court, or other person, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if no such defect had appeared.

XXIII. No person prosecuted shall be entitled to traverse or postpone the trial of any indictment found against him at any Session of the Peace, Session of Oyer and Terminer, or Session of Gaol Delivery; provided always that if the Court, upon the application of the person so indicted or otherwise, shall be of opinion that he ought to be allowed a further time, either to prepare for his defence or otherwise, such Court may adjourn the trial of such person to the next subsequent session, upon such terms as to bail or otherwise as to such Court shall seem meet, and may respite the recognizances of the prosecutor and witnesses accordingly, in which case the prosecutor and witnesses shall be bound to attend to prosecute and give evidence at such subsequent Session without entering into any fresh recognizance for that purpose.

XXIV. In any plea of autrefois convict or autrefois acquit it shall be sufficient for any defendant to state that he has been lawfully convicted or acquitted (as the case may be) of the said offence charged in the indictment.

XXV. Whenever any person shall be convicted of any one of the offences following, as an indictable misdemeanor; that is to say; any cheat or fraud punishable at common law; any conspiracy to cheat or defraud, or to extort money or goods, or falsely to accuse of any crime, or to obstruct, prevent, pervert, or defeat the course of public justice; any escape or rescue from lawful custody, on a criminal charge; any public and indecent exposure of the person; any indecent assault, or any assault occasioning actual bodily harm; any attempt to have carnal knowledge of a girl under twelve years of age; any public selling, or exposing for public sale or to public view, of any obscene book, print, picture, or other indecent exhibition, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the offender to be imprisoned for any term now warranted by law, and also to be kept to hard labour during the whole or any part of such term of imprisonment.

XXVI. In the construction of this Act the word "indictment" shall be understood to include "information," "inquisition," and "presentment," as well as "indictment," and also any "plea," "reply," or other pleading; and the terms "finding of the indictment," shall be understood to include "the taking of an inquisition," "the exhibiting of an information," and "the making a presentment;" and wherever, in this Act, in describing or referring to any person or party, matter or thing, any word importing the singular number or masculine gender is used, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applied to several persons and parties as well as one person or party, and females as well as males, and bodies corporate as well as individuals, and several matters and things as well as one matter or thing; and the word "property" shall be understood to include goods, chattels, money, valuable securities, and every other matter or thing, whether real or personal, upon or with respect to which any offence may be committed.

XXVII. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January, One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

The Hon'ble the President in Council, having intimated to the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal, that there is reason to believe that the purport of the Orders issued on the 24th March 1849, regarding the erection of Mural Tablets in Churches, and particularly respecting the interment of Christians not belonging to the Church of England in Burial Grounds provided by the Government, is not generally known to those whom they concern, and having expressed his desire that the Orders in question should be published for general information, the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal is pleased to direct that the following Extract from the Orders in question, conveyed in a letter addressed by the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department to the Lord Bishop of Calcutta, on the 24th of March 1849, be published for general information:—

"In respect to the erection of Mural Tablets, the directions of the Government are briefly these; that application is to be made for the purpose to the Ecclesiastical Authorities; that a fee of 50 Rs. is to be paid to the Chaplain for permission to erect a Mural Tablet within the walls of any Church; of which fee three-fourths is to be immediately paid by the Chaplain to the Collector of the District, to be by him credited to the Government to meet the cost of Repairs and Church Establishment, and the remaining one-fourth is to be retained by the Chaplain and applied to charitable purposes, under such instructions as your Lordship may think fit to issue.

"It is the opinion of the Government that the Chaplain of the Station ought to have charge of the Burial Ground, and exercise a general control over the erection of Monuments and Tombstones, but that no fee need be required for such erection, and that it should be distinctly understood that it is not optional with the Clergyman to give or withhold the key of the Burial Ground, which must be opened whenever required for purposes of interment by Christians, of whatever sect or denomination. In respect of ground already consecrated, or ground which may be set apart hereafter for the purpose of burial, it is desirable that a sufficient portion should be in the one case added, and in the other case reserved for the use of Christians not of the Church of England. To this the Government would add, with reference to para. 6 of your Lordship's letter, above quoted, that it is not desirable that the portion of ground added or reserved within Burial Grounds for those who are not of the Church of England should be fenced off, or that it should have a separate door. It does not appear to the Government that there should be any such separation. The Government, in providing ground for the interment of its servants, or those who die under its rule, should set apart a space sufficient to contain all."

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

• NEW PILOT STATION FOR THE

S. W. Monsoon—Distinction of Lights.

NOTICE is hereby given, that from and after the 15th of March 1852, the Pilot Station for the South West Monsoon will be changed to the position described in the following Sailing Directions of the Master Attendant of this Port; and that from and after the date specified, the Eastern Channel Light Vessel will show a bright red light instead of a plain one, as at present, to distinguish it from the Gasper Channel Light, which bears from it about N. N. W., distant 22 miles.

By Order of the Superintendent of Marine,
JAMES SUTHERLAND,
Secretary.

Fort William, the 6th May, 1851.

Sailing Directions for Vessels requiring Pilots during the South West Monsoon at the New Station, on the North East part of the Pilot Ridge.

False Point Light House is in latitude $20^{\circ} 19\frac{1}{2}'$ north and longitude $86^{\circ} 47'$ east, and a buoy is placed in $21\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude $20^{\circ} 49\frac{1}{2}'$ north, and longitude $87^{\circ} 42'$ east, the buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House north $59^{\circ} 49'$ east true, and distant $59\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

A vessel therefore after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms) should bring it to bear about west south west 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms, then steer east north eastward, when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge. She should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruising ground is immediately to the north east of the Light Vessel stationed during the South West Monsoon in close proximity to the buoy on the Ridge.

The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are in general a greenish or olive coloured mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude $21^{\circ} 04'$ north and longitude $88^{\circ} 14'$ east, and therefore bears from the buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, north $63^{\circ} 26'$ east, true; and distant $32\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

The Eastern Channel Light Vessel burns a blue light every hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M. and a maroon (or torch) at the intermediate half hours, and her standing Light will from the date above specified, be a bright red colour.

The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows one plain standing Light, and burns a blue light every hour, and a maroon at the intermediate half hours, and also fires a gun on sighting any vessel.

During the North East Monsoon, the cruising ground where Ships will have to seek for Pilots, will be as heretofore in the Eastern Channel.

Master Attendant.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. III. OF 1852.

An Act to amend the law relating to spirituous and intoxicating liquors, drugs and preparations within the Territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas Chapters XI. and XII. of Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code have been found to be difficult of application in some parts of the territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay, owing to local and peculiar causes, It is enacted as follows :

I. The Governor of Bombay in Council may introduce into any part of the said territories such arrangements for the assessment and collection of the revenue derivable from the manufacture and retail sale of spirits, as local circumstances in each case, in the judgment of the said Governor in Council, may require, the same not being inconsistent or incompatible with the provisions of this Act.

II. The licences mentioned in Section LVIII., Clause 1, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code may be granted by the Collector at his discretion for the manufacture of spirits at any place within his Collectorate, whether a sudder distillery be there established or not.

III. It shall not be imperative on the Collector to accept the highest offer for the farm of the Abkaree duties under Section LX., Clause 2, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the said Code, but the Collector shall be at liberty to use his discretion as to the tender he will accept under the general instructions of Government.

IV. No person shall directly or indirectly retail in the said territories spirits, however or wheresoever manufactured, except under the authority of a licence from the Collector, to be granted in the form of Appendix I. to the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or in such form, and after payment of such fee, as Government may, from time to time, appoint.

V. Spirits may be manufactured in the said territories for exportation, or removal under a licence from the Collector, but not otherwise; and such licence, when granted, shall specify the spirit so authorized to be manufactured, the place at which, and the period for which, the manufacture may be carried on, and that the same is permitted for the purpose of removal or exportation only.

VI. Spirits manufactured under the last Section shall not exceed the strength which may, from time to time, be declared by public notification in each district, and shall be liable to the payment of such duty as the Governor in Council shall, from time to time, impose. Liquor found to exceed the prescribed standard shall be liable to double duty, or confiscation at the discretion of the Collector.

VII. Spirits manufactured under the fifth Section of this Act, shall not be removed from the place of manufacture, except under a pass from the Collector, certifying the payment of the aforesaid duty, and specifying the name of the person exporting or removing the same, the quantity of spirits, their destination, the route by which they are to be conveyed, and the dates from and to which the pass shall be in force, which pass shall exempt the spirits lawfully removed under it from the payment of any further duty in their progress through the same territories, excepting always such import or Customs duty, if any, as may be payable at the place of their destination under any Act or Regulation now or hereafter to be in force.

VIII. The Collector may place such establishments on the premises where the manufacture of spirits for exportation or removal is permitted, and may adopt such other precautions as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act having reference thereto.

IX. Spirits imported by land from any part of the territories of the East India Company, whether subordinate to the Government of Bombay or not, into any other part of the said territories subordinate to the said Government, shall be liable on importation to the same rate of duty under the same circumstances and rules as are provided in Section XX. of Act No. I. of 1852, for amending the Customs laws of the Bombay Presidency with respect to spirits imported by sea.

X. It shall not be lawful in any part of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay to manufacture or prepare for sale, or sell directly or indirectly, any intoxicating drugs or materials, or any intoxicating drink or preparation manufactured from Bhang, Ganja, Grain, Opium or other materials, of what nature or description soever, except under a licence from the Collector of the Zillah, and it shall be competent to the Collector to refuse, or to re-call such licence whenever he shall deem it expedient, and every such licence when granted shall specify the name of the drug, material, drink, or preparation so authorized to be manufactured or sold, the place or district of manufacture or sale, and the length of time for which such licence is to run, and any other terms or conditions which the Governor of Bombay in Council may, from time to time, deem it expedient to require, and such fees shall be demanded, from time to time, on the grant of such licences as the said Governor in Council may sanction.

XI. It shall not be lawful to mix any noxious drug or material in, or by other process to adulterate spirits manufactured under the provisions of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or of this Act.

XII. All persons offending against, or aiding others in offending directly or indirectly, against any of the provisions of this Act, or committing a breach of any of the conditions of a licence to be granted under this Act, or obstructing Officers or others in the execution of their duties connected with any of its provisions, shall be punished by fine not exceeding Rupees five hundred, to be committed, in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding six months; and any person having in his possession intoxicating drinks or preparations manufactured contrary to the provisions of this Act, or for which he is unable satisfactorily to account, shall be deemed to be possessed of them illegally, and shall be subject to the penalties above specified.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 16th January 1852, with the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. III. OF 1852.

An Act to amend the law relating to spirituous and intoxicating liquors, drugs and preparations within the Territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas Chapters XI. and XII. of Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code have been found to be difficult of application in some parts of the territories subordinate to the Presidency of Bombay, owing to local and peculiar causes, It is enacted as follows :

I. The Governor of Bombay in Council may introduce into any part of the said territories such arrangements for the assessment and collection of the revenue derivable from the manufacture and retail sale of spirits, as local circumstances in each case, in the judgment of the said Governor in Council, may require, the same not being inconsistent or incompatible with the provisions of this Act.

II. The licences mentioned in Section LVIII., Clause 1, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the Bombay Code may be granted by the Collector at his discretion for the manufacture of spirits at any place within his Collectorate, whether a sudder distillery be there established or not.

III. It shall not be imperative on the Collector to accept the highest offer for the farm of the Abkaree duties under Section LX., Clause 2, Regulation XXI. of 1827 of the said Code, but the Collector shall be at liberty to use his discretion as to the tender he will accept under the general instructions of Government.

IV. No person shall directly or indirectly retail in the said territories spirits, however or wheresoever manufactured, except under the authority of a licence from the Collector, to be granted in the form of Appendix I. to the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or in such form, and after payment of such fees as Government may, from time to time, appoint.

V. Spirits may be manufactured in the said territories for exportation, or removal under a licence from the Collector, but not otherwise; and such licence, when granted, shall specify the spirit so authorized to be manufactured, the place at which, and the period for which, the manufacture may be carried on, and that the same is permitted for the purpose of removal or exportation only.

VI. Spirits manufactured under the last Section shall not exceed the strength which may, from time to time, be declared by public notification in each district, and shall be liable to the payment of such duty as the Governor in Council shall, from time to time, impose. Liquor found to exceed the prescribed standard shall be liable to double duty, or confiscation at the discretion of the Collector.

VII. Spirits manufactured under the fifth Section of this Act, shall not be removed from the place of manufacture, except under a pass from the Collector, certifying the payment of the aforesaid duty, and specifying the name of the person exporting or removing the same, the quantity of spirits, their destination, the route by which they are to be conveyed, and the dates from and to which the pass shall be in force, which pass shall exempt the spirits lawfully removed under it from the payment of any further duty in their progress through the same territories, excepting always such import or Customs duty, if any, as may be payable at the place of their destination under any Act or Regulation now or hereafter to be in force.

VIII. The Collector may place such establishments on the premises where the manufacture of spirits for exportation or removal is permitted, and may adopt such other precautions as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act having reference thereto.

IX. Spirits imported by land from any part of the territories of the East India Company, whether subordinate to the Government of Bombay or not, into any other part of the said territories subordinate to the said Government, shall be liable on importation to the same rate of duty under the same circumstances and rules as are provided in Section XX. of Act No. I. of 1852, for amending the Customs laws of the Bombay Presidency with respect to spirits imported by sea.

X. It shall not be lawful in any part of the territories subject to the Government of Bombay to manufacture or prepare for sale, or sell directly or indirectly, any intoxicating drugs or materials, or any intoxicating drink or preparation manufactured from Bhang, Ganja, Grain, Opium or other materials, of what nature or description soever, except under a licence from the Collector of the Zillah, and it shall be competent to the Collector to refuse, or to re-call such licence whenever he shall deem it expedient, and every such licence when granted shall specify the name of the drug, material, drink, or preparation so authorized to be manufactured or sold, the place or district of manufacture or sale, and the length of time for which such licence is to run, and any other terms or conditions which the Governor of Bombay in Council may, from time to time, deem it expedient to require, and such fees shall be demanded, from time to time, on the grant of such licences as the said Governor in Council may sanction.

XI. It shall not be lawful to mix any noxious drug or material in, or by other process to adulterate spirits manufactured under the provisions of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, or of this Act.

XII. All persons offending against, or aiding others in offending directly or indirectly, against any of the provisions of this Act, or committing a breach of any of the conditions of a licence to be granted under this Act, or obstructing Officers or others in the execution of their duties connected with any of its provisions, shall be punished by fine not exceeding Rupees five hundred, to be commuted, in default of payment, to imprisonment not exceeding six months; and any person having in his possession intoxicating drinks or preparations manufactured contrary to the provisions of this Act, or for which he is unable satisfactorily to account, shall be deemed to be possessed of them illegally, and shall be subject to the penalties above specified.

XIII. The powers conferred on the Collector by Chapter XIII. of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, shall extend and be applicable to the provisions of this Act, so far as the same are capable of being so applied.

XIV. The Collector shall have full powers to seize and destroy all unlicensed liquor, preparations, drugs, or materials, and all unlicensed stills, and to sell the same, if deemed expedient, on behalf of Government.

XV. The duties, powers, and authorities hereby vested in the Collector shall devolve upon, and may be lawfully exercised by the Officer specially appointed under Section LV. of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, for the purposes herein mentioned.

XVI. The powers vested in the Collectors of Land Revenue by Chapter XIII. of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, and by Sections XII., XIII. and XIV. of this Act, may be exercised by Mamlutdars and Mahalkurrees, provided always, that those Officers shall not be authorized to adjudge any fine exceeding Rupees fifteen in amount, commutable, in default of payment, to twenty days' imprisonment; and provided further, that any order passed by a Mamlutdar or Mahalkurree in virtue of this Act shall be subject to appeal to the Collector or his Assistants, within one month from its date, and that no suit for damages shall be instituted in a Civil Court by persons deeming themselves aggrieved by any proceeding of a Mamlutdar or Mahalkurree under the authority of this Act, unless they shall first have made an appeal to the Collector or his Assistants.

XVII. In all actions or Civil suits which may be brought against Collectors, Magistrates, or others for acts done by them in carrying out the provisions of this Act, or the provisions of the said Regulation XXI. of 1827, if it shall appear at the trial that the act complained of was done bona fide, and that there were reasonable and probable grounds for the same, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited with full costs to be paid by him.

XVIII. This Act shall not have effect within the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. IV. OF 1852.

An Act to amend the law relating to emigrant vessels and the emigration of labourers.

Whereas by Section VIII., Act XXI. of 1844, it was among other things enacted, that no ship or vessel carrying emigrant labourers to Jamaica, British Guiana, or Trinidad should sail from Calcutta, Madras, or Bombay, at any other time than between the 30th day of any September and the 1st of March next thereafter ensuing; and whereas the said provision was repealed by Act XXV. of 1845, so far as regarded vessels carrying emigrant labourers from Madras, and has been found inconvenient for vessels carrying emigrant labourers from Calcutta; and whereas it is expedient to amend the law relating to the height between decks in emigrant vessels; and whereas by Section I., Act XXI. of 1843, it was enacted, that emigration to Mauritius should only lawfully take place under the provisions of Act XV. of 1842, from the Port of Calcutta; and whereas by Act VIII. of 1847, the emigration of labourers from the Port of Madras to Mauritius was declared lawful, and it is now expedient to repeal Section I., Act XXI. of 1843, and to render lawful the emigration of labourers from the Port of Bombay to Mauritius, It is enacted as follows:

I. So much of Act XXI. of 1844, as is hereinbefore recited, is repealed, so far as regards ships or vessels carrying emigrant labourers from Calcutta.

II. No ships or vessels carrying emigrant labourers to Jamaica, British Guiana, or Trinidad, shall sail from Calcutta at any other time than between the thirty-first day of any August and the 1st day of March next thereafter ensuing.

III. No ship or vessel carrying emigrants and having more than one deck, shall have less than the height of five feet and six inches at the least between decks, and in case such ship or vessel shall have only one deck, a platform shall be laid beneath such deck in such manner as to afford a space of the height of five feet and six inches at the least, and such platform shall not be so laid as that the lower beams shall project above the same, and whatever may be the tonnage of the ship or vessel, no greater number of emigrant labourers shall be taken on board such ship or vessel than shall be after the rate of one emigrant labourer for every seventy-two cubic feet of space between decks, or between the deck and platform, unoccupied by goods or stores not being the personal luggage of such emigrant labourers, any thing in Act XV. of 1842, or in the Schedule therein mentioned, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. Section I., Act XXI. of 1843 is hereby repealed, and from and after the passing of this Act, emigration to Mauritius may lawfully take place under the provisions of Act XV. of 1842 from the Port of Bombay, as well as from the Ports of Madras and Calcutta.

V. The Governor in Council of Bombay may nominate a proper person to act as Protector of Emigrants at Bombay, and no emigrant shall be permitted to embark without a certificate from the Agent appointed by the Government of Mauritius, countersigned by the Protector, to the effect that such person has been engaged by such Agent, on the part of the said Government, as an emigrant to Mauritius.

the 23rd January, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 23rd January 1852.

ACT No. — of 1852.

An Act to amend certain provisions of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the provisions of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code, It is hereby enacted as follows:

I. The second and third Clauses of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code are hereby repealed.

II. So much of Section XLII., Regulation VII. of 1832 of the said Code as is not hereby repealed shall be applicable to all the classes of persons specified in Section XIII. of the said Regulation.

III. The consent of the Defendant to refer a claim brought against him under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, to the decision of a Panchayet, shall be no longer required.

IV. In all cases in which the amount of the claim shall exceed one thousand Company's rupees, or in which judgment shall have been given upon an ex-parte hearing for payment of a sum exceeding two hundred Company's rupees, or for the recovery of property exceeding in value the said sum of two hundred Company's rupees, an appeal shall lie from the decision of a Panchayet held under the provisions of Section XLII. of the said Regulation to the Court of Sudder Adawlut at Madras, and the said appeal shall be prosecuted, heard and determined according to the rules in force with regard to appeals from Zillah Courts.

V. The Plaintiff or Defendant may plead by Vakeel before any Panchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation. In awarding costs in a case in which a paid Vakeel has been employed by the successful party, the Panchayet shall tax the charge made in respect of such Vakeel, so that it shall not exceed the amount allowable, under Section XXV., Regulation XIV. of 1816 of the Madras Code, to a Vakeel employed in a regular suit in a Zillah Court; Provided always that the said Panchayet shall only allow such costs, or any part of them, when in their judgment, there was reasonable cause, from the nature of the suit, for having recourse to the services of a Vakeel.

VI. After a copy of the Plaint has been furnished to the Defendant or his Vakeel, he shall file or deliver his answer on a day to be fixed by the Panchayet, within thirty days after the date of the delivery of the copy of the Plaint.

VII. If the Plaintiff or his Vakeel shall not appear at the time fixed for the trial of the suit by a Panchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, and shall not show sufficient cause for his absence, the Panchayet shall dismiss the suit for want of prosecution, and shall award to the Defendant costs at the rate of two per cent. on the amount of the claim. If the Defendant, without sufficient cause shown, shall refuse to answer the Plaint, or shall not attend at the time fixed for the trial, the Panchayet having ascertained that he was duly served with a copy of the Plaint, and with notice of the hour fixed for the trial, shall proceed to try the case ex-parte, and shall give judgment thereupon, and such judgment shall be as valid as if both parties had attended at the said trial. Provided always that the Officer Commanding the Field Station or Detachment, on sufficient cause being shown to him, may suspend the execution of any judgment given in the absence of the Defendant, and may recommend to the Sudder Adawlut to grant a new trial of the cause, and the Sudder Adawlut may, in their discretion, allow or disallow the new trial proposed, and their order allowing or disallowing the same shall be final.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 23rd day of April next.

*Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 23rd January, 1852.*

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 23rd January 1852.

ACT No. — of 1852.

An Act to amend certain provisions of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the provisions of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code, It is hereby enacted as follows :

I. The second and third Clauses of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code are hereby repealed.

II. So much of Section XLII., Regulation VII. of 1832 of the said Code as is not hereby repealed shall be applicable to all the classes of persons specified in Section XIII. of the said Regulation.

III. The consent of the Defendant to refer a claim brought against him under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, to the decision of a Panchayet, shall be no longer required.

IV. In all cases in which the amount of the claim shall exceed one thousand Company's rupees, or in which judgment shall have been given upon an ex-parte hearing for payment of a sum exceeding two hundred Company's rupees, or for the recovery of property exceeding in value the said sum of two hundred Company's rupees, an appeal shall lie from the decision of a Panchayet held under the provisions of Section XLII. of the said Regulation to the Court of Sudder Adawlut at Madras, and the said appeal shall be prosecuted, heard and determined according to the rules in force with regard to appeals from Zillah Courts.

V. The Plaintiff or Defendant may plead by Vakeel before any Panchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation. In awarding costs in a case in which a paid Vakeel has been employed by the successful party, the Panchayet shall tax the charge made in respect of such Vakeel, so that it shall not exceed the amount allowable, under Section XXV., Regulation XIV. of 1816 of the Madras Code, to a Vakeel employed in a regular suit in a Zillah Court; Provided always that the said Panchayet shall only allow such costs, or any part of them, when in their judgment, there was reasonable cause, from the nature of the suit, for having recourse to the services of a Vakeel.

VI. After a copy of the Plaint has been furnished to the Defendant or his Vakeel, he shall file or deliver his answer on a day to be fixed by the Panchayet, within thirty days after the date of the delivery of the copy of the Plaint.

VII. If the Plaintiff or his Vakeel shall not appear at the time fixed for the trial of the suit by a Panchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, and shall not show sufficient cause for his absence, the Panchayet shall dismiss the suit for want of prosecution, and shall award to the Defendant costs at the rate of two per cent. on the amount of the claim. If the Defendant, without sufficient cause shown, shall refuse to answer the Plaint, or shall not attend at the time fixed for the trial, the Panchayet having ascertained that he was duly served with a copy of the Plaint, and with notice of the hour fixed for the trial, shall proceed to try the case ex-parte, and shall give judgment thereupon, and such judgment shall be as valid as if both parties had attended at the said trial. Provided always that the Officer Commanding the Field Station or Detachment, on sufficient cause being shown to him, may suspend the execution of any judgment given in the absence of the Defendant, and may recommend to the Sudder Adawlut to grant a new trial of the cause, and the Sudder Adawlut may, in their discretion, allow or disallow the new trial proposed, and their order allowing or disallowing the same shall be final.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 23rd day of April next.

The following Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 30th January 1852, is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT NO. VI. OF 1852.

An Act for defraying the Cost of a Light-House on Pedra Branca.

Whereas it has been deemed expedient, for the safety and guidance of Ships navigating the China Seas, to build a Light-House on the Island Rock called Pedra Branca, situated at the Eastern entrance of the Straits of Singapore;

And whereas certain sums of money were subscribed by private individuals for that purpose, but the same were insufficient to defray the expense of building such Light-House; And whereas the East India Company agreed to build such Light-House, and to advance certain sums of money to complete the same, on condition that the said sums of money were repaid to them by the levy of a toll on Ships and other square-rigged Vessels entering the harbour of Singapore; And whereas the said Light-House has been built by the East India Company, and it is desirable that the expense of building the same, and of maintaining a Light thereon, should be defrayed out of the monies arising from such toll; And whereas it may hereafter be deemed expedient to establish other Lights, or beacons in the Straits of Malacca or elsewhere near thereto, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Light-House on Pedra Branca aforesaid shall be called "The Horsburgh Light-House," and the said Light-House, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging or occupied for the purposes thereof, and all the fixtures, apparatus, and furniture belonging thereto, shall become the property of, and absolutely vest in the East India Company and their successors.

II. From the first day of March, 1852, every Ship, being of the burden of fifty tons and upwards, which shall arrive at, or enter the harbour or roadstead of Singapore, from any part of the world, shall pay a toll of three cents, of a dollar per ton for every ton of her registered burden or tonnage; Provided always that no Ship shall pay such toll more than once in every six calendar months.

III. All Ships of War belonging to Her Britannic Majesty, or any Foreign Government or State, and all armed Ships belonging to the East India Company, shall be exempt from the payment of such toll.

IV. The management and controul of the said "Horsburgh Light-House," and of the keeper thereof, and of everything relating thereto, is hereby vested in the Governor of the Straits Settlements.

V. The said Governor may appoint any person he may think fit, to be a Collector of the tolls payable under this Act.

VI. Out of the funds raised by such tolls, an efficient Light shall be constantly kept up and exhibited during the night-time in and from the said Light-House, and the surplus monies arising from such tolls, after deducting the expense of maintaining such Light as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, be paid over to the said East India Company, in liquidation of the monies they have advanced towards the erection and completion of the said Light-House, and the apparatus and furniture thereof.

VII. The toll to be levied under this Act shall become due and payable immediately on the arrival of every Ship liable thereto within the harbour or roadstead of Singapore; and immediately on the arrival of any such Ship within the said harbour or roadstead, the Collector appointed under this Act shall demand, or cause to be demanded, from the master or other person in command of such Ship, payment of the toll of three cents of a Dollar per ton for every ton of the registered burden or tonnage of such Ship, and if the same be not paid within two days after such demand made as aforesaid, or if at any time after the arrival of such Ship as aforesaid, the said Collector shall have cause to suspect, or believe, that such Ship will immediately leave the said harbour or roadstead, without paying such toll, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon an affidavit to that effect being made before him on oath by such Collector (which oath the said Justice is hereby authorized to administer), to issue his Warrant under his hand, directed to any Peace Officer of Singapore aforesaid, to enter on board such Ship, and to seize and carry away any of the goods, merchandize, guns, tackle, apparel or furniture of or belonging to or on board such Ship, and to keep the same for the space of three days then next, unless the said toll shall be in the mean time paid; and in case the amount of the toll due by such Ship shall not before the expiration of such three days have been paid, then the said Collector may cause the said goods, merchandize, guns, tackle, apparel or furniture so seized to be sold, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay the amount of the said toll to which such Ship shall be liable, together with the reasonable charges of the seizure, detention, and sale, rendering to the master or owner, or other person having the command of such Ship, the overplus (if any) on demand.

VIII. The Officer of Government whose duty it shall be to grant a Port-clearance for any Ship clearing out of or leaving the port of Singapore aforesaid, shall refuse to grant such Port-clearance to any Ship until the owner, agent, master or other person in command of such Ship shall produce a certificate from the Collector appointed under this Act that such Ship has paid the amount of toll to which she is liable under this Act.

IX. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the said Collector appointed under this Act, may sue for and recover the amount of any tolls payable to him under this Act, by action of debt or suit in equity in any of Her Majesty's Courts in India, against the owner, or master, or other person who, at the time of default made in the payment of such toll, owned or had the command of any Ship liable thereto.

X. In order to ascertain the exact burden or tonnage of any Ship liable to pay the toll leviable under this Act, the Collector appointed under this Act may apply to any Justice of the Peace to require, and such Justice of the Peace shall thereupon summon and require, the owner, master, or other person in command of such Ship, or any person having possession of the same, to produce the register of such Ship, for the inspection of such Justice, and upon the refusal or neglect of any such owner, master, or person to produce such register, it shall be lawful for such Justice to adjudge such owner, master, or person to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in default of payment, to be imprisoned in Her Majesty's Gaol for any period not exceeding two calendar months.

XI. When and so soon as the monies to be advanced by the said East India Company towards the erection and completion of the said Light-House shall have been fully repaid and liquidated in manner herein provided for, it shall be competent for the Governor of the Straits Settlements, to build, or cause to be built, one or more other lights or beacons for the safety and guidance of Ships in such part or parts of the Straits of Malacca, or near thereto, as shall be deemed expedient, and the cost thereof, and of maintaining the same, and of keeping up and exhibiting a light or lights therefrom, shall be defrayed out of the surplus monies arising from the toll payable under this Act, after defraying the current expenses of maintaining the "Horsburgh Light-House" aforesaid.

XII. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize the levy of a toll upon any Ship passing through the Straits of Singapore and not entering the said harbour or roadstead of Singapore aforesaid.

XIII. The word "Ship" throughout this Act mentioned, shall be held to mean and include a Schooner, Cutter, Brig, Brigantine, Barque, Junk, Steam-Boat, and every other Vessel, as well as a Ship; and words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number only shall include also the singular number, and words importing the masculine gender shall extend to females, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 23rd January, 1852.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 23rd January 1852.

ACT No. — OF 1852.

An Act to amend certain provisions of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the provisions of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code, It is hereby enacted as follows:

I. The second and third Clauses of Section XLII. of Regulation VII. of 1832 of the Madras Code are hereby repealed.

II. So much of Section XLII., Regulation VII. of 1832 of the said Code as is not hereby repealed shall be applicable to all the classes of persons specified in Section XIII. of the said Regulation.

III. The consent of the Defendant to refer a claim brought against him under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, to the decision of a Panchayet, shall be no longer required.

IV. In all cases in which the amount of the claim shall exceed one thousand Company's rupees, or in which judgment shall have been given upon an ex-parte hearing for payment of a sum exceeding two hundred Company's rupees, or for the recovery of property exceeding in value the said sum of two hundred Company's rupees, an appeal shall lie from the decision of a Panchayet held under the provisions of Section XLII. of the said Regulation to the Court of Sudder Adawlut at Madras, and the said appeal shall be prosecuted, heard and determined according to the rules in force with regard to appeals from Zillah Courts.

V. The Plaintiff or Defendant may plead by Vakeel before any Panchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation. In awarding costs in a case in which a paid Vakeel has been employed by the successful party, the Panchayet shall tax the charge made in respect of such Vakeel, so that it shall not exceed the amount allowable, under Section XXV., Regulation XIV. of 1816 of the Madras Code, to a Vakeel employed in a regular suit in a Zillah Court; Provided always that the said Panchayet shall only allow such costs, or any part of them, when in their judgment, there was reasonable cause, from the nature of the suit, for having recourse to the services of a Vakeel.

VI. After a copy of the Plaint has been furnished to the Defendant or his Vakeel, he shall file or deliver his answer on a day to be fixed by the Punchayet, within thirty days after the date of the delivery of the copy of the Plaint.

VII. If the Plaintiff or his Vakeel shall not appear at the time fixed for the trial of the suit by a Punchayet held under Section XLII. of the said Regulation, and shall not show sufficient cause for his absence, the Punchayet shall dismiss the suit for want of prosecution, and shall award to the Defendant costs at the rate of two per cent. on the amount of the claim. If the Defendant, without sufficient cause shown, shall refuse to answer the Plaint, or shall not attend at the time fixed for the trial, the Punchayet having ascertained that he was duly served with a copy of the Plaint, and with notice of the hour fixed for the trial, shall proceed to try the case ex-parte, and shall give judgment thereupon, and such judgment shall be as valid as if both parties had attended at the said trial. Provided always that the Officer Commanding the Field Station or Detachment, on sufficient cause being shown to him, may suspend the execution of any judgment given in the absence of the Defendant, and may recommend to the Sudder Adawlut to grant a new trial of the cause, and the Sudder Adawlut may, in their discretion, allow or disallow the new trial proposed, and their order allowing or disallowing the same shall be final.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 23rd day of April next.
